

S COLONEL

LONDON 1. Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 11th and 12th. Pugmire will accompany KINGSTON—Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 18th and 19th.

LIEUT.-COLONEL and THE will visit PARIS—(Accompanied by the Band.)—December 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, and 1909.

BRIGADIER TAYLOR will visit PETERBOROUGH. — Sunday, Dec. 18th and 19th.

BRIGADIER POTTER will visit COBourg. — Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 18th and 19th.

MAJOR DAVID CROOK will visit Oshawa—Sunday, Dec. 19th.

MAJOR SIMCO will visit Yorkville, December 18th to 21st.

THE TERRITORIAL Y.P. will visit No. 1. Corra (Queen and T. Sts.)—Thursday, Dec. 18th. Temple—Sunday, December 19th. Riverdale—Monday, December 20th. Lippincott—Monday, December 21st.

LIEUT.-COL. SOUTHAL PRESIDE.

THE TERRITORIAL Y.P. will visit *Dovercourt—Wednesday, Dec. 16th. Yorkville—Sunday, Dec. 18th, noon. *Wychwood—Tuesday, Dec. 19th. *Lisgar Street—Thursday, Dec. 21st.

T. F. S. APPOINTMENTS

Ensign Hardy, North-West P. Sackatoon, December 21st. Albert, D. C. D. Dauphin, N. Neepawa, Dec. 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31.

Captain Mannion, East Ont. P. Oshawa, Dec. 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, and 1909.

Captain Lloyd, West Ont. P. Collingwood, Dec. 18. Sarnia, Dec. 19. Chatham, Dec. 20. Owen Sound, Dec. 21. Port Huron, Dec. 22. Windsor, Dec. 23. Detroit, Dec. 24. Toledo, Dec. 25. Cleveland, Dec. 26. Buffalo, Dec. 27. Niagara Falls, Dec. 28. Rochester, Dec. 29. Albany, Dec. 30. New York, Dec. 31.

Captain Millar, Eastern P. Fredericton, Dec. 12. St. John, Dec. 13. St. Stephen, Dec. 14. Head, Dec. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, and 1909.

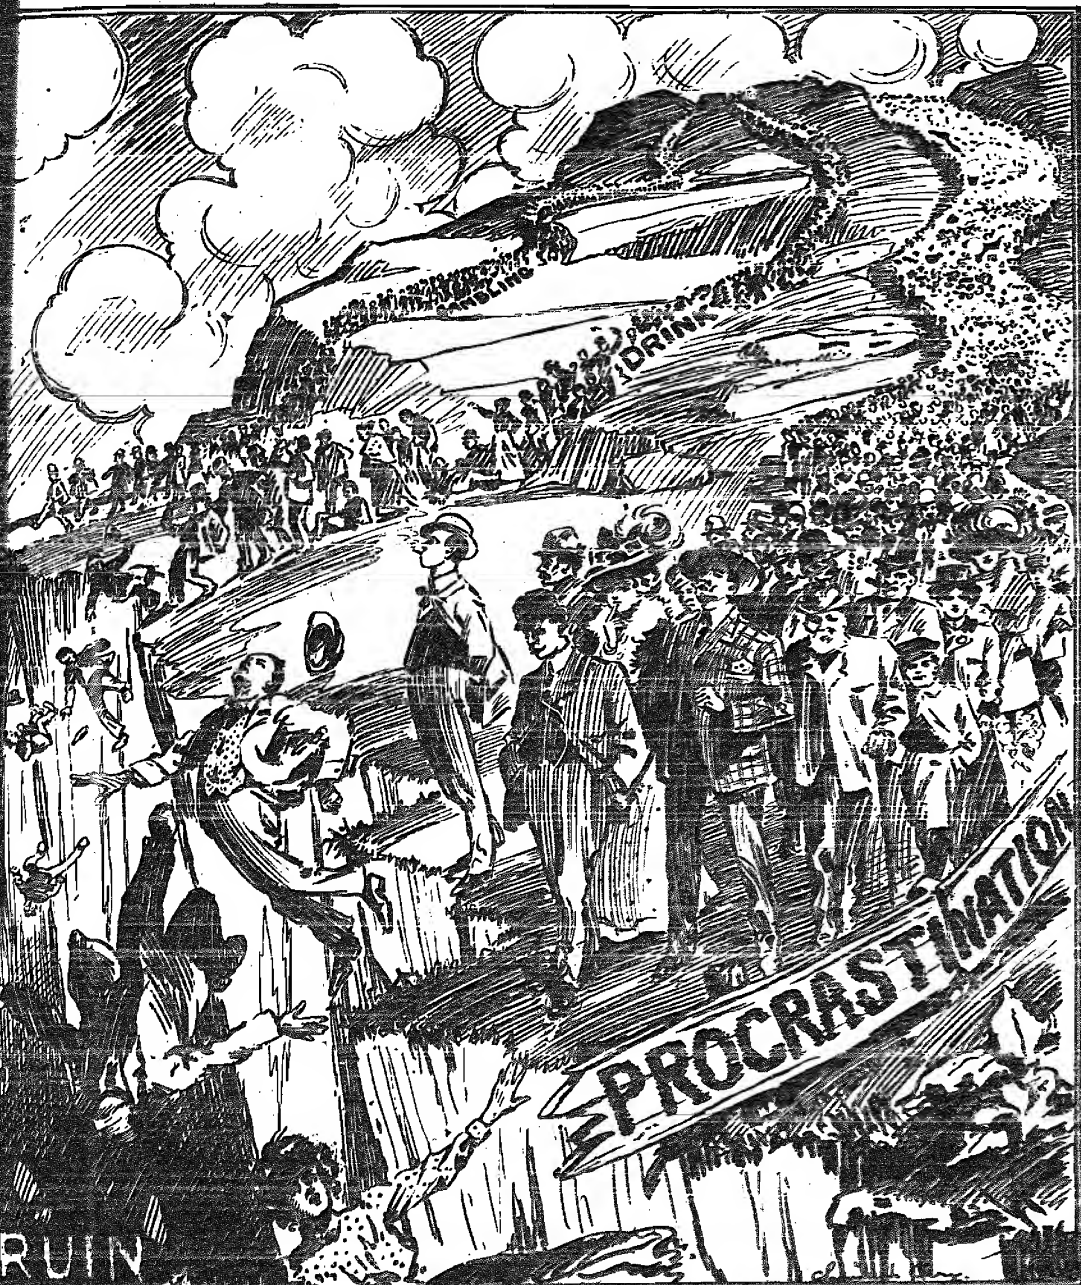

WILL new settlers in the British Isles, those who would be willing to settle in the Dominion, write to LIEUT. COLONEL, Immigration Department, Toronto, Ont.?

THE WAR CRY.

OFFICIAL GAZETTE of THE SALVATION ARMY in CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Year, No. 12 WILLIAM BOUTH, General. TORONTO, DECEMBER 18, 1909. THOMAS R. COCKEL, Commissioner. Price, 5 Cents

This Cartoon Contains "a Point to Ponder O'er."

Drink and Gambling send many people to perdition, but Procrastination ruins more than all other causes. Are you a procrastinator? Procrastination means to put off from day to day—to delay. Procrastination will take you to Hell. Don't forget that. Get saved to-day.

Colonel Sukh Singh Among the Bhils.

Some of the streams we crossed had a bed of deep mud, and in crossing one of them, the Calicut man came off the horse he was riding, and Brazilian Jang Baimdore's horse threw him over, so that he arrived at the destination in an extra coat of clean field mud.—Indian City.

It was a football field, and a short, thick-set, nimble figure stood watching the game. Within his breast a storm of contending passions raged. He had been a few weeks married; fondly, delightfully delivered from sin and filled with the joy of the Lord, but he was a champion footballer, and invitations were pressing from all points to re-enter the field. He loved the game, his team was going to the wall for want of his presence, but as he watched that match, a voice sounded like a bell through his soul: "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." The choice was made to follow and the undivided love of God and man, and the noble testimony to Jesus Sutor, one of the best ballers for souls in the Army—the Victory.

An Australian Social Officer's Work

During the interview which the Wan Cry man had with Staff-Captain Armour, the latter was waited on by a broken-down object of pity. His suit of clothes looked only fit for the rag-hag, he was without a shirt and his boots and gapping holes in them gave him the appearance of a tramp and said he had spent over twenty months in the British army. He admitted having been on the drunk for two or three days, and the fact that he was far from being a teetotaler. Was only too apparent in every move-

À l'embouchure du fleuve de l'océan.

The Army, from its earliest days, has had down strict rules for its soldiers upon this line, so that temptation to worldly recreation is almost in the dead, but for church members who are debating the question, let the comment of a military officer be "cheerless discipline" or "discipline." Let our churches we are shown upon the doors to worldly recreations, leaving thereby to catch and hold our young people, but during these weeks, we have seen that to reach the General of Israel, and of a heart full of love and mercy, and inspired by the Spirit of God, has

General Prayer: "O Lord be pleased to graciously bless all who are in any trouble, sorrow, or bereavement, and especially need Thy grace and presence at this time."

Special Prayer Tonic: 1.—Pray for reclamation of backsliders. 2.—Pray for all teachers in Sunday Schools, Communion Guards, and those into the spiritual care of whom the Young People are intrusted. 3.—Pray for success of all efforts to put away the evil of strong drink. 4.—Pray for all Soul-Saving efforts throughout our land. 5.—And every other land.

Sunday, December 19th.—The Sailer's Heifer. Psams xvii, 11, 12; cxvii, 6, 7; cxvii, 443.

Monday, December 20th.—Fixed and Trusting. Psams cxvii, 1-31; cxvii, 113; cxvi, 16.

"You Must Fight"—The General

Take commercial warfare, where you have much the same thing in both principle and practice. Think of the incessant night and day work necessary to keep a railway running. Think of the monotonous work to keep the doors of a big bank open to construct a railway, make a tunnel or a dock or to conduct any similar operation. Work, work, work, is the order, the necessity of these and all similar transactions. They can

This has applied to my own warfare. It is very easy to make a mistake here. You see me on the platform, you hear me talking to the thousands, etc. You say, "Ah, this General has a rare old time of it. Let us accompany by a visit of honor." "excitement. Bless him! Let us give him another roller." These impressions in his "from mine." But behind the scenes, out of sight, you look and hear, and brain have to grind on night and day and that with a little cessation is the lot of any Officer in the Field.

Every man who wants to really work must be willing to sweat. It cannot be done without. It never has been. It never will be.

This rule applies to you, my comrade, if you are to be of any use to the world. You cannot be useful and successful without doing this unflinching, out-of-sight work, and plenty of it.

You cannot have a leader without H. Bannerman, Songster and Local Officer.

[illegible]

Frank —, known among his old associates as "Red" Frank, was the first to speak. Like so many of us, he remarked this occurred last—Frank, his mother and mother-in-law as well as his grandfather, being present. When our two musicians and his mother died and his brothers were in the course of their mourning time, he related how while teaching his way West, he heard an Army singing Brigade in Cheboksai, and was then and there convinced of his lineage and brought to a certain knowledge of Cheboksai. Not only was he delivered from this, but he was able to find his home and returned that the same day delivered.

He will be with us always to live.
The world, with its fashions, frowns and its pleasures, is a mere dream and a passing show. It is a mere heart and a righteous God.

Every week at least, there should be the careful and thorough examination of the condition of each and the songs of the week. On such occasions, good use may be made of nothing like the following:

Am I habitually guilty of any known sin? Do I practice or allow myself to be tempted in thoughts, words or deed that I know to be wrong?

Am I the master of my bodily appetites, so as to have full self-mastery? Do I allow myself to be indiscreet, that is, indiscreet in the business, food in the kitchen, etc. leave, or company?

Are my thoughts and feelings such as I should be? Am I inclined to love creatures more than God and myself?

from all sin and the grace of God.

This would be great if he was snatched from the grave by the angels, as he sometimes imagined. He laid himself with a will in his debarment he was working upon the weary him, his wife and his friends for his sake and for the sake of the verge of humanity. He laid upon his shoulder away gently by the and noticed his power the distressed look on reaching the shore and finally realizing that a power able to save that had bound him to speak peace to his friends.

For many years now the faithful Soldier of the Cross and of the Cross.

(C)

A Police Story

I made for a police station a number of "the future" of the town. I went up to the charge, and asked him if he was possible, if he was possible to solicit subscriptions for the fund.

... was talking to him.
... I think
...
...
... This gave me
... noticed
... their class ...

[illegible]

HETH
our p cult u begin

who have to watch their herds of reindeer. Our comrades must always be down near the moving herds for some months of the year, and yet, there is no permanent

Again, Outposts several miles away, consisting of a new regular operations. An Officer say on institutions, she is as a Lieutenant walk every from any house, equipment to her gathered from all her future fight from Outposts, or they have been

Scandalous Misc

The Norwegians are a bigger size than any of us of all who really We're ma
We're
God bless
And ke

To be true to God that we do—that A rough leg drinker, now after thirty years' days had shaken for many years his tears dropped and saved, and guests are going.

The sale of smallest and the requests, the I and let of coar that might be g to say for built

A Startling Owl

We have arranged meetings all the rest of widely scattered. In one Swiss man to attend. All appeared at power of God's out-come, so that each of their in another comrade, already seen known as longed had to be against the doc- was to paint of those who passed Salvationist abun- million hearts: ber the best ex- blase down for calmer in fu-

BY COMMISSIONER RAILTON.

Again, Outpost work, which often consists in holding meetings several miles away from any Corps, may develop any day into the opening of a new Corps, and so be looked back upon as a part of the regular operations of the Corps that began it. How glad I was to hear an Officer say one day, that, after commanding many large Corps or Institutions, she still looked back for his brightest memory to the days when, as a Lieutenant, she was going alone to an Outpost—a nine miles' walk every Sunday. The return journey, along dark lanes, far from any house, was that which gave this service its most precious enjoyment to her; for, realising the fellowship of God all the way, she gathered from Him on those solitary marches, invaluable strength for all her future fightings. Just such walks alone with God, either to or from Outposts, or to or from War Cry selling, or to or from any other duty have been amongst our grandest times of conquest of the world.

The Norwegian Soldier, skidding thirty English miles to a meeting, takes a bigger share in the conquest of the world by the whole Army than any of us can measure. Oh, how true it is, as we sing, especially of all who really pray—

We're marching on, we're marching on;
We're marching on together;
God bless our Army round the world,
And keep us true for ever.

To be true to God trusting Him as fully as we are always singing that we do—that is the victory.

A rough life at Chatham, was often kept out of the meetings by the doorkeeper, owing to his scandalous misconduct in the Hall. But after thirty years he came to see the Officer's wife, who in those early days had shunned him, scolded him, and wept over him, to tell her that her many years he had wandered, yet ever and anon seeming to feel her like tears dropping on his hand, till he at length surrendered to God, was saved, and became a true Soldier. How often the finest converts are going on when we seem to be losing.

The sale of our newspapers, more especially where our Hall is smallest and the light seems hardest is all the time securing for us equipment, the importance of which we cannot measure at the time; and yet, of course, we cannot but be awake in the great loss of results that might be gained in so many directions, but for the want of money to pay for buildings, and for other means wherewith to facilitate our advance.

We have at one of our French Corps, a mother, who goes to the holiness meeting every Sunday morning at 8.30, and after that spends all the rest of the day carrying seventy to eighty of our papers to a widely scattered circle of villages, gathering converts every now and then.

In one Swiss city, some three hundred of the worst young men began to attend the meetings with the intention of disturbing them. All appeared at first indifferent, but ere long they came under the power of God's Spirit. In the cafes, The Army was the topic of discussion, so that they actually helped us, over their glasses, to the conquest of their companions.

In another city, when the meetings were forbidden in our Hall, a comrade, already won, opened his house as a meeting-place. It was known as the "Cládel," because the dear Soldier to whom it belonged had to barricade it against the heavy stones that were thrown against the doors and windows and on to the roof. His only revenge was to paint on the roof, in letters large enough to be read even by those who passed the place far away on the lovely lake beside it, the Salvationist shell question, that has gone into and exploded in so many million hearts: "Are You Saved From Sin?" Many a one will remember the hot exhortation that used to blaze down from our Headquarters' chimney in London, until another

It is a common thing now that the authorities have been sufficiently won over to our side, for an Officer to obtain from the police the names of all the drunkards and criminals of a place, confident that his Soldiers, though themselves brought up, in so many cases, in entirely different circumstances will gladly run after such friendships once they capture them for God. One such person often proves just the needed instrument to catch scores more.

And then this sort of capture so reminds us of the sympathy of all well-intentioned people that we often get by it a hearing from a Wages town. German public opinion has been won over to our side, throughout the whole Empire, since it has been seen that we not only talk and sing about rescuing the prisoner, but that, by God's help, we really do it.

Three of our leading Officers in the Fatherland did their time of naval service on the Kaiser's German ships. They were, I believe, the only ones for it because they were unusually well educated and conducted themselves but they were as careless about their souls as young sailors generally are when they strolled into our Kiel Hall to see the fun." But Goltz Spilck took hold of their hearts: they came to Christ; gave themselves, as soon as their service was completed, to our War, and steadily advanced; till now, as Divisional Commanders, they have our operations in large stretches of the Empire under their care.

When a Government school teacher in Germany wanted to become an Officer, and had no means to repay as the law required, the cost of his training, before coming into Training with us the Kaiser, upon being appealed to, kindly ordered his release from the obligation to pay the £21 15s. due.

But Australian Governmentals deride the eternal strife for bread to begin to give to manual support and then some special facilities to influence their criminal classes to leave work and learn to work in their central colony. The Government of Iowa has, however, so far left all other Governments behind on this line, having taken the trouble personally to look into matters, when he was of course associated, to find how much better and more cheaply we could mine and help all the needy classes than any Government or other machinery could do it.

Thus, without running about the lobbies of Parliament, or the palaces of statesmen, but by simply caring for every part of a man's being God has led us to win not only individuals and masses but authorities and nations for Him.

It looked for a time, as though our latest conquests abroad—Korea—was going to be the most wonderful in the present time. Certainly the state of things, when thousands came weeping in penitence, before one Officer has had time to learn their language, and then, ALAS! with God's power, go publishing Salvation all over their country, is beyond parallel in our past.

But, unfortunately, the leader of our Training Work in London has been utilizing all the eight hundred Officers and Cadets under his direction to avoid attacks upon the heart of London and any help or aid in God who were the march of the four thousand-odd soldiers held in the Victoria Park, to demonstrate in favour of Jesus Christ on May 10th this year and who knows the large force of Soviet Soldiers rising up besides in our Social Institutions throughout the Metropolitan, must have doubted whether the old Birthplace of The Army is now going, after all, to collapse as other part of the world in response to carry out that grand motto suggested by Japanese students to all Christians: "Make Jesus King".

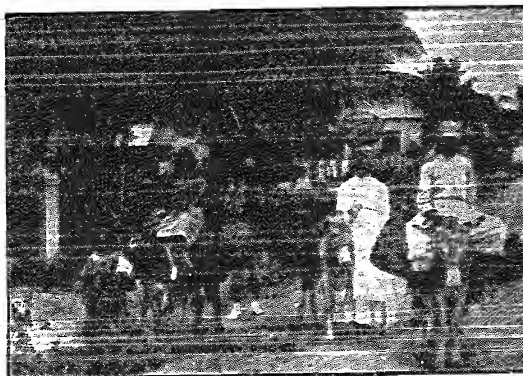

St. Thomas.—The Railway City has just been favoured with a weekend visit from its Provincial Commander, Lieut-Colonel Sharp. The P. C. was assisted by the D. O. Staff Captain Critchton, and Eastern Rifles. Good meetings were held. The P. C. gratified his audience. In the morning, five persons sought a clean heart; and later in the day one comrade, who had felt the sacrifice too great in the morning, got the victory. In the evening meeting the Colonel embraced with his meeting a memorial service for a comrade who was promoted to Glory during the week—Mrs. Cable—a very godly woman who was suddenly taken into the Master's presence. The Colonel was actively upheld during his talk, and, after a wonderful prayer meeting, nine souls sought deliverance from sin.—A. Critchton.

STIRRING TIMES

LIEUT. COL. SOUTHALL VISITS
NEW WESTMINSTER.

How West Indian Salvationists Spend Christmas—The Festive Season

By Staff-Captain W. T. Shaw

Bringing in the Christmas Supplies to Kingston Market. From the Mountains.

The aged folks and the poor people are not forgotten. Through the kindness of merchants and friends in most of the principal towns there is a gathering of these people a day or two before Christmas, when parcels of provisions consisting of meat before bringing it to the table. The engine the conspirators had surmised when it was discovered that the route led, instead of following the instructions given her, had put a responsible of Jerry's Disinfecting Fluid into the sauce, which she consumed all over the dinner. None

Kingston, En Foto, on Christmas Morning: At the Victoria Market

From 150 to 200 are outside the town of

Our Band is making under the leadership Creston. The City been kind enough to Market Place once a time in, while our performed. We finished day's meetings with prayer.

in Great Britain.

... election will be aw
... greatest interest by

Medical Education ; Canada.

the movement, and for technical education was no means local sectional. It is entirely national in character.

the Manufacturers
Central Air Transport the hope of the new eloquent and disputat and con

Child's Future.

the Manufacturers
Central. Sir Thomas the hopefull of Can few eloquent an disappointment and

Isis in Great Britain.

the mere statement of this fact the gravity of the crisis. That rich and solvent nation should be compelled to borrow money to meet its financial liabilities from any day, is something to make British citizen blush, and every Great Britain glad."

question of deal education Canadians was only deal in the House Commons, by Hugh Guthrie Member for Wellington. pointed out both the Can-Manufacturassociation and rades and La Congress of la had passed tions in favor the estabment of an entirely new system of general education.

leading educationists and Boards all over the country, had their support for the movement, and for technical education was the means local sectional. It is entirely national in character, and in all countries.

y. Germany, Great Britain and the United States have all recognized the need of technical training and were expending large sums of money for the purpose of enabling the individual citizen better to gain a livelihood. The United States has the largest population to maintain its proper place in the markets of the world. The demand for technical education is a part of the citizens and the Government of Canada, arose from a desire to improve themselves in their trades and crafts, in the hope that thereby they might secure their remuneration and per-their work under less laborious

ons. On the part of the em-ly arose from the fact that recent years manufacturers and it a difficult matter to be either in the home or for-markets, against manufacturers tries where there were staffs unical-trained artisans at their l).

's Future.
The Manufacturers' Banquet in at Sir Thomas Shaughnessy hopefully of Canada's future, ew eloquent as he showed the ment and expansion of our
His speech concluded as fol-

Trouble Feared in Nicaragua.

The situation in Nicaragua is becoming more serious every day, and the United States Government is moving naval forces to both coasts of Central America for the purpose of protecting American life and property. The troopship "Prairie" has been despatched from Philadelphia, with seven hundred marine aboard, while on the opposite side of the continent the cruiser, "Albatross," and the gunboat "Yorktown," have sailed from Magdalena Bay. Beside this, the cruisers "Des Moines," and "Tacona," and the gunboat "Maletta," are lying off Port Limón, Costa Rica.

Rear Admiral Kimball has been chosen as commander of the American Naval forces.

Holidays for Newspaper Men.

Thanksgiving Day in New York was celebrated by an almost total absence of evening papers. The plan for discontinuing them on holidays has been under discussion for several years. Several publishers have refused to get out editions on Christmas Day, on the ground that the paper does not sell on that publication. It was also argued that the newspaper workers were entitled to their holidays. If the public does not evince an overwhelming desire for its favourite evening papers this time it may have to go without at Christmas, New Year's Washington's Birthday, and even to Fourth of July.

Japan's Silence.

The Army and Navy Journal, in commenting on the books published concerning the Russo-Jap war, says: "As one reads the avalanche of Washington, that Pearl Harbour, in the Hawaiian Islands, long recognized as the key to the control of the Pacific is to be made the principal naval base in western waters of the United States, and is to be so fortified as to resist attack by a foreign fleet.

This decision, of far reaching importance, was announced at the navy department. Following a conference between President Taft and Mr. Meyers' secretary of the navy, recommendations made by the joint army and navy board. At the same time it was decided to abandon plans for a naval base at Manila to establish a limited naval repair station at Subig Bay, and to leave the fortification of the Philippines in the hands of the army.

The entire plan, which is now to be pushed to completion, was the subject of much discussion among army and navy authorities, who disagree over some of it, but were unanimous in deciding it to be the safest and most effective way of controlling the Pacific, and protecting the American West was concerned. It is pointed out that a well-fortified naval base and coaling station in the Pacific, is the first essential for the operation of our fleet in these waters. Hawaii has been recognised as the strategic point for this establishment, as the fleet from this point is within steaming radius of the Philippines, the Pacific coast of South America, and the entrance to the Panama canal.

A Valuable Dinner.

Whilst a man at Atlantic City was eating oysters for his dinner, he hit something hard. When he removed the obstruction from his mouth, he was astonished to find he held a half dozen pearls. One was about the size of a buckshot, and the others as large as marbles.

He did not think much about his find until he took them to a jeweller who said they were worth $15,000. The pearls were not discovered in the shell but in the body of the oyster.

Pardon and P. niger.

The London Daily "Mail" publishes a strange story concerning a military deserter. It is as

After an absence of forty years, John Peck, a native of Nottingham, returned to England recently, and discovered that he was still liable to be arrested for having deserted from his regiment in 1869. His career, however, has been so remarkable, that when the facts were related, the War Office not only granted him a free pardon but a pension as well.

"Peck ran away from home at the age of twelve, and went to sea. He subsequently joined the army, and served in the Crimea. After peace was declared, he got transferred to another regiment, and was ordered out to India, where he went through the Mutiny. Later, he quarrelled with an officer and deserted."

"He had a hard time as a South African diamond prospector, but whenever a chance of fighting occurred he always embraced it, and he served against the Basutos, the Zulus and the Boers. His relatives had not heard of him for fifty-three years, when he recently re-appeared. He is now seventy-two years of age, and is bent on going back to South Africa to find work in the mines."

There are many deserters from God's service who may read this. God says, "Return unto Me, and I will return unto you."

A Repentant Burglar.

The sight of two sleeping children caused a burglar in Chicago to repent of his deeds and return money he had stolen from their purses. He had snatched the arguments of the father and taken all the money in his wife's purse. He then went into the room where the children were sleeping, and tiptoeing out, gave to the astonished parents, the money which he had taken, a small sum, and added a silver coin, saying "Those are great kids. I haven't got much coin, but you can give them this for me."

True it is that,

Down in the human heart, crashed
by the tempter, Feelings lie buried, that grace can restore."

Trans-Andean Tunnel.

Chili and Bolivia recently celebrated the opening of the new Trans-Andean Tunnel, connecting Arica on the northwest coast of Chili, with the Bolivian city of La Pás, on the south shore of Lake Titicaca. The Chilean section of the tunnel was opened on March 25th, 1966, and the work of piercing the Andes Mountbooks from military men and others on the Manchurian war, one is struck by the absence of Japanese authors. Whether or not a prohibition has been put upon the publishing of war volumes by officers of the Japanese Army, it is almost impossible to keep with the reputation of the discreet Islanders, who have the name of listening much and saying little. As it is now, the Japanese are profiled by what the observers of other nations have given to the world, what they have taken from the world, and are almost as locked in their breasts. It may be that the difficulty of translating works from Japanese will account for paucity of Japanese official comment, but it is more likely that their traditional caution has kept them from contributing to the world's literature which has followed the war.

"Many officers on the Russian side, including the distinguished General Kuropatkin have kept their pens busy with their impressions of the war, but we have yet to read of any work by Marshal Oyama, General Kuroki, General Nogai, or Admiral Tokyo."

New Naval Base for U. S. Fleet.

It is stated in a despatch from Band Chat.

THE BAND OF THE 10th Battalion, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, which is now stationed at the Regina Barracks, is a very fine band. It is composed of men who are all musicians and who are all very capable. They are all very capable and they are all very capable.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

The band is now under the command of Mr. J. H. Smith, who is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Eminent Statesmen WHO ARE FRIENDS OF THE ARMY.

Britain's Premier, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Leader of the Opposition.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

Mr. Asquith, Prime Minister of England, is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man. He is a very capable man and he is a very capable man.

work in the cause of temperance and social redemption.

Mr. Lloyd-George, one of the most brilliant debaters in Parliament and admittedly one of its greatest business successes, probably knows more of the inner life of The Army than any other member of the present Cabinet. In his early days he came into such close touch with it as to take part on more than one occasion in our open-air meetings. He saw The Army spread like a prairie fire amongst the Welsh hills and valleys, and the vision of those days has not left him. It has been under its banner he probably would have been today one of its chief pillars. As it is the Chancellor of the Exchequer has a deep and tender regard for The General, and always, when referring to The Army, speaks of it with marked respect.

Mr. Lloyd-George was born in Liverpool in 1863, and is the son of Mr. H. George, a millowner of that city, who died there in 1903. His mother is the daughter of a Welsh Baptist Minister.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer has been a member of the Army since he was a boy, and was attached as a cadet to the 1st Battalion of the Buffs. He spent the most impressionable years of his life amid an environment where treachery and sub-

Mr. Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The Right Hon. Arthur James Balfour, one of the most brilliant debaters in Parliament and admittedly one of its greatest business successes, probably knows more of the inner life of The Army than any other member of the present Cabinet. In his early days he came into such close touch with it as to take part on more than one occasion in our open-air meetings. He saw The Army spread like a prairie fire amongst the Welsh hills and valleys, and the vision of those days has not left him. It has been under its banner he probably would have been today one of its chief pillars. As it is the Chancellor of the Exchequer has a deep and tender regard for The General, and always, when referring to The Army, speaks of it with marked respect.

Mr. Lloyd-George was born in Liverpool in 1863, and is the son of Mr. H. George, a millowner of that city, who died there in 1903. His mother is the daughter of a Welsh Baptist Minister.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer has been a member of the Army since he was a boy, and was attached as a cadet to the 1st Battalion of the Buffs. He spent the most impressionable years of his life amid an environment where treachery and sub-

Mr. Lloyd-George was born in Liverpool in 1863, and is the son of Mr. H. George, a millowner of that city, who died there in 1903. His mother is the daughter of a Welsh Baptist Minister.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer has been a member of the Army since he was a boy, and was attached as a cadet to the 1st Battalion of the Buffs. He spent the most impressionable years of his life amid an environment where treachery and sub-work. These are other things, but the belief that the Christian teaching is the only one worthy of the individuality of the individual is a general principle which is the basis of the teaching of The Army. It is the basis of the teaching of The Army.

Mr. Lloyd-George was born in Liverpool in 1863, and is the son of Mr. H. George, a millowner of that city, who died there in 1903. His mother is the daughter of a Welsh Baptist Minister.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

The Music of the War. In one of the episodes of the war, the music of the war was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war. It was a very important part of the war and it was a very important part of the war.

PERSONALITIES.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

Colonel Howell was the guest of the band at the welcome home at Colonel Mitchell. In his welcome he received a tribute to the band which was presented by the band.

PERSONALITIES.

parts of splendid receptions meetings are being received at the Q. from the representatives of the Immigration Department now in Old Land.

Colonel Howell was the guest of honour at the welcome home given to Colonel Mitchell in his to the welcome he received. Howell said that he counted on doing him as a tribute of honour for the Band which he led — the Canadian Staff.

Brigadier Potter, during his recent tour at the welcome home at meeting two or three days who were soldiers under the days of his Captaincy, who are still fighting on.

Head of the Publishing Department has been the recipient of a number of verbal and written communications on the printing of our issue — the Christmas Cry.

Taylor recently interviewed a number of convicts in Mountjoy, with a view to finding employment on their coming home.

Staff-Captain comrade — Staff-Captain called in at T. H. Q. recently. His erstwhile Officer-comrades glad to see him once more.

Design N. Horwood and Captain have been appointed to charge of Guelph.

Captain E. White and Lieutenant have been transferred from the Women's Social Department.

Captain and Mrs. Weir (late of Toronto) have taken charge of the Ottawa and Captain and Mrs. Harwood have been appointed to Montreal.

Brigadier R. Barker of the Prov. Department, T. H. Q., has recently undergone an operation. Captain Boulton, who is in the same hospital, we regret to say, not making much progress as we should.

Design Slitt, of the Architect's Department superintended the alterations throughout, to Peterborough's appearance, which now presents a new appearance.

UNITED UNDER THE ARMY FLAG.

On Thursday night, November 18, the Jaw had for the first time an Army wedding, when Captain C. Smith and Brother V. Mitchehnore were the interested parties. Brigadier Burditt, who presided, led on Band-Sergeant Delamont to give some good advice to the young couple about to be united, after which the marriage ceremony was performed. The Brigadier then led on the Band to give a selection, which they did in an able manner. Brigadier Burditt spoke well of the couple's faithful service and devotion to God and wished them every blessing in married life. The Hall was crowded to the doors witness the scene — A. G.

POWER.

BY COLONEL BRENGLE

"Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you."

(Concluded.)

freed from the power and love of money.

A rising young lawyer got filled with the Spirit, and the next day said to his client: "I cannot plead your case. I have a retainer from the Lord Jesus;" and he became one of the mightiest preachers the world has ever seen.

A fashionable woman got the baptism, and God gave her power to break away from her worldly set and surroundings, live wholly for Him, and gave her an influence that girded the globe.

Paul said: "The world is crucified unto me and I unto the world."

used, but not abused, will help to develop and maintain the purest and highest manhood. The appetites for food and drink are necessary to life. Another desire is intended to secure the continuance of the human race. And so all the desires and appetites of the body have useful ends, and were given to us in love by our Heavenly Father for high and essential purposes, and are necessary to us as human beings.

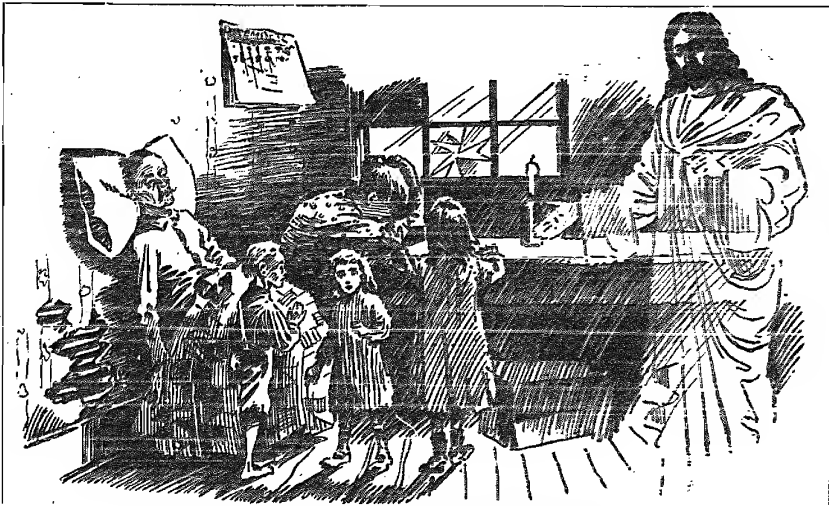

But the soul, cut off from fellowship with God, by sin, seeks satisfaction in sensual excesses, and the unlawful gratification of these appetites, and so sinks to depths of degradation, to which no beast ever falls. Thus man becomes a slave; swollen and raging passion takes the place of innocent appetites and desires.

Now when the Holy Spirit enters tobacco for over sixty years, delivered from the abnormal appetite instantly through sanctification of the Spirit. I knew an old man, who had been a drunkard for over fifty years, similarly delivered. I knew a young man the slave of a vicious habit of the flesh, who was set free at once by the fiery baptism. The electric current cannot transform the dead wire into a live one quicker than the Holy Spirit can flood a soul with light and love, destroy the carnal mind, and fill a man with power over all sin.

2. Power over the devil. The indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit destroys all doubt as to the personality of the devil. He is discerned, and his malice is felt and known as never before.

In the dark a man may be so skillfully attacked that his enemy is not discovered, but not in the day. Many people in these days deny that there is any devil, only evil; but they are in the dark, so much in the dark that they not only say that there is no devil, but that there is no personal God, only good. But the day

"THE POOR YE HAVE ALWAYS WITH YOU."—CHRIST.

This cartoon depicts the circumstances in which Christmas will find some who, through sickness or other unavoidable causes, will have to endure bitter misery. Will you help The Army to bring a little cheer to such. Send gifts for this purpose to the Commissioner, Salvation Army Temple, Toronto.

Men could whip, and stone, and imprison his body, and cut off his head, but his soul was free. It was enslaved and driven by no unholy or inordinate ambition, by no lust for gold, by no desire for power or fame, by no fear of man, by no shame or worldly censure or adverse public opinion. He had power over the world, and this same power is the birthright of every converted man, and the present possession of every one who is wholly sanctified by the baptism with the Holy Ghost.

2. Power over the flesh. The body which God intended for a "house beautiful" for the soul, and a temple holy unto Himself, is often reduced to a sty, where the imprisoned soul wallows in lusts and passions and degrades itself below the level of beasts. But this baptism gives a man power over his body.

God has given to man such desires and passions as are necessary to secure his continued existence, and not one is in itself evil, but good and only good; and when controlled and the heart and sanctifies the soul. He does not destroy these desires, but He purifies and regulates them. He reinforces the soul with the fear and love of God and gives it power, complete power, over the fleshly appetites. He restores it to its full fellowship with God, and its kingship over the body.

But while these appetites and desires are not in themselves sinful, but are necessary for our welfare and our complete manhood, and while their diseased and abnormal power is cured when we are sanctified, they are still avenues through which we may be tempted. Therefore, they must be guarded with care and ruled in wisdom. Many people stumble at, and reject the doctrine of entire sanctification because they do not understand these things. They mistake that which is natural and essential to a human being for the diseased and abnormal propensity caused by sin, and so miss the blessed truth of full salvation.

I knew a doctor, who had used comes with the Holy Spirit's entrance, and then God is intimately known and the devil is discovered. And as he assailed Jesus; after His baptism with the Spirit so He does today, all who receive the Holy Ghost. He comes as an angel of light to deceive, and as a roaring lion to devour and overcome with fear; but the soul, armed with the Spirit, outwits the devil and, clad in the whole armour of God, overcomes the old enemy.

"Power over all the power of the enemy" is God's purpose for all His children. Power to do the will of God patiently and effectively, with naturance and ease, or to suffer the will of God with patience and good cheer, comes with this blessed baptism. It is power for service on sacrifice, according to God's will. Have you this power? If not, it is for you. Yield yourself fully to Christ just now, and if you ask in faith you shall receive.

"Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?"

PRINTED for Thomas B. Coombe, Communications of the Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, and Alaska, by the Salvation Army Printing House, at Albert Heintz, Toronto.

Appointments

Appointments.—
LIEUT.-COLONEL TURNER, to be Secretary Subscribers' Department, T. H. Q.
BRIGADIER ADDY, to be Divisional Commander, St. John, Division.
BRIGADIER MOREHEN, to be Divisional Commander, Toronto Division.
MAJOR McLEAN, to be Divisional Commander, Halifax Division.
MAJOR HAY to be Divisional Officer, New Ontario Division.
THOS. B. COOMBS,
Comptroller

Where is no doubt that the authorsities responsible for maintenance of law and order, are awakening to a sense of their responsibility in dealing with matters affecting the moral well-being of the community. Quite recently we drew attention to Judge Weir's remarks, following his action in a certain case of three offenders against public morality. In effect, it was, that he gave them the workhouse punishment provided for their offence, and was sorry that he could

Now, we have Colonel Denison, of the Toronto Police Court, making use of the terrors of the law, to put down evil. An indecent play was being acted in a Toronto theatre, and through the courage and public spirit of a minister of the Gospel, a conviction against the manager was secured, and when sentencing the manager of the house the Magistrate is reported to have said: "I should like to get the actors who do such things; and I will guarantee, once they have appeared, they will not come back in a hurry." This is all to the good, and should prove an effective deterrent to the prudent-minded of the theatrical profession. We can congratulate the Magistrate on his attitude to this evil, and the Minister on his public spirit in going to the theatre for the purpose of getting evidence, and then bringing the case into court.

What he wanted on the part of all communities, is more interest in the cause of morality, and greater aggressiveness. The Salvation Army has ever been noted for the latter quality, and many of the blessings and privileges we enjoy to-day, have come to us through the noble efforts of those who have gone before us. Let us see to it that we do not

A frightful view of the white slave traffic in America, is given by the President of the National White Cross League. Addressing an audience, she said:—

"At $1,800 a head, average price of negro girls on the auction block fifty years ago the three hundred thousand white slaves in the United States today, represent an investment of $540,000,000. Each year.

sixty-seven thousand, or $120,000,000 worth of these women are sacrificed in the highly financed districts of vice throughout this country and an equal number of recruits are procured each year to take their places. Of this vast army of unfortunates, whose march from the home to the morgue, or the insane asylum, because of the vice route, has been shown by statistics to average but five miserable years. Chicago, today, contributes 37,000.

It is to be feared that many of Canada's daughters have been overlooked into this horrible condition, and parents cannot be too careful in seeing that their children who leave home go to live with people who are respectable. The Salvation Army's extensive Rescue operations reveal that many innocent girls have been led into a life of shame through carelessness on the part of parents or friends, in seeing that the situations to which they have been sent have been respectable or not.

OUR LEADER'S FIXTURES FOR JANUARY

On the last page will be found the announcement of a very important tour which will be undertaken by our Leaders early in the new year. Commissioner and Mrs. McCormick and Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, with other comrades will travel to Vancouver, conducting special soul-saving Campaigns, and dealing with property questions, etc., at most of the cities in the great North-West and B. C. As will be seen by the fixtures, the Tour is a very comprehensive one, and by means of a division of forces, a great area will be covered. We want all our comrades to pray that this tour may be made the means of great inspiration and impulse to the Corps visited, and that many may be eternally

References

During the months of September and October, the Social and Prison Gate operations were highly successful, so the following facts will show:

Enquiry.
Missing friends found..... 25
No. of Meetings held in prisons..... 210 Prisoners desiring to live new life asking our help..... 145 Discharged prisoners given employment..... 152
Meals given to discharged prisoners..... 473
Clothing, (pieces) given to discharged prisoners..... 510 Lodgings given to discharged prisoners..... 305
Assisted with fares, etc..... 58

Police Court.
Prisoners brought to the Court.....

The Young People's Annual, for the purpose of awarding prizes for attendance and merit during the year, will be held the first or second week-end in February next. The alternative dates are allowed, so as to meet local conditions.

This Picture Represents the Three Organisations of Young People created at Toronto. They are: 1. The Territorial Young People's Stilt. 2. The Territorial Young People's Orchestra; Leader, Captain Ernest Stitt. 3. The Girls' Physical Culture Brigade; Leader, Ensign Lightbourne.

Vigorous Campaign in Portsmouth

Sir George Courzens Presides on Sunday Afternoon—Sp
Naval and Military Leagues

HIS great town of naval, military, and Salvation Army traditions, has been powerfully moved by The Gospel.

Portsmouth is noted for its knowledge of the sea. You will find that the seamen, as they are called, are more fully represented here than in any other town south of the Thames. Who ever has witnessed the booming thousands surging along Commercial Road on a Saturday night, will not soon forget the scene. No wonder that The General's bear, was moved by that spectacle of men and women disregarding God and intent upon everything but their rebelliousness to God. His compassionate eyes were on them.

"The people—the people—the people; let us do all we can for the people!" was the burden of the General's heart and the expression of his lips as soon as he reached his office on Saturday night. It could not be anything else that the burden of his message on the morning of the 1st of January was. That this feeling kindled an instant and unanimous response in the vast assemblage could not be mistaken. The cause was well put by a French nobleman; "the great, the good, the heavy, the true, inspire the masses."

man in whom he saw that he understood of righteousness. "Aye," one is ten thousand.
see another like him him! I say, my long This survey was speaking and more of his class.

Jack's Own Look.
A. Jackler arrived last night's prayer meeting through. He had been ashore, and knew he for The General's work. "This is right," he said, "in him from the Lord."
In his vigorous look, The General strikes the religion of courage, a longed-for assurance, all-tempting, earnest, confident soul, and the expense from all over showed the effectiveness.

In the afternoon, some of the men gathered in George's hang to listen to his story of the day. George O'Connell, who was one of the people gathered, said that he

I was quite in keeping that Old No. 1 Corps, of the Territory should be the first on the list.
The beautiful new City was just on fitted for the Sun-morning meeting with Soldiers

The Corps has made good progress under Captain and Mrs. Scott. The Commissioner reported the Corps and the Benedictine playing, and hoped for still more improvements in the future.

The writer has sung "Make a Love of Social," our leader at his conference to a most profitable reading, where he pure in heart and undivided was our faith. He said to the Commissioner: "I am sending address, Brigadier General, the New Divisional Office introduced, afterwards giving definite testimony on the line."

revelation.
There was a remarkable attention. The most of the invitation was given, from all over the city, they came with ten driving in his dear face for being charming. One house had to be helped to the more and then each got their understand this was come to a We believe the meeting and further from.
The answer came next. The Ch-was pushed down from the moment to a comfortable in. With a view to the opened, with "God is keeping His soldiers fighting." Brigadier Mowbray then pleaded for God's presence and power to be much felt. A solo by the writer, and the Commissioner led on his feet. He was given a rousing wholehearted welcome. His address had the right ring with it, and was as a nail fastened in a sure place. They set with eyes, ears, and hearts with hearts open, hanging on every word. The visible results were little disappointing, after such a powerful appeal. There were 19 surrender. Dovercourt Corps has the opportunity of being an all-White Corps and is to be congratulated on having Adjutant and Mrs. Hahrik to believe in it. There are far-reaching opportunities in this district for work, and we are hoping to see it flourish double itself during the winter months. May God grant it!

 - 112-13, Street - (Sunday night). splendid open-air service preceded the one inside, the Commissioner heading a very lengthy procession.
 The powerful band directed a large group with their sweet music, we followed and packed the Citadel.
 Nobody can visit this wonderful Corps without being impressed with the magnitude of the opportunity there is of doing a mighty work for God and eternity. We believe C and Mrs. Osborne, with their devoted soldiers, will have a witness to their motives.
 The Commissioner spoke as a inspired by God and made very fa-fully w of elec terrible sins w science to mar remedy

There

The
vis

Warm!

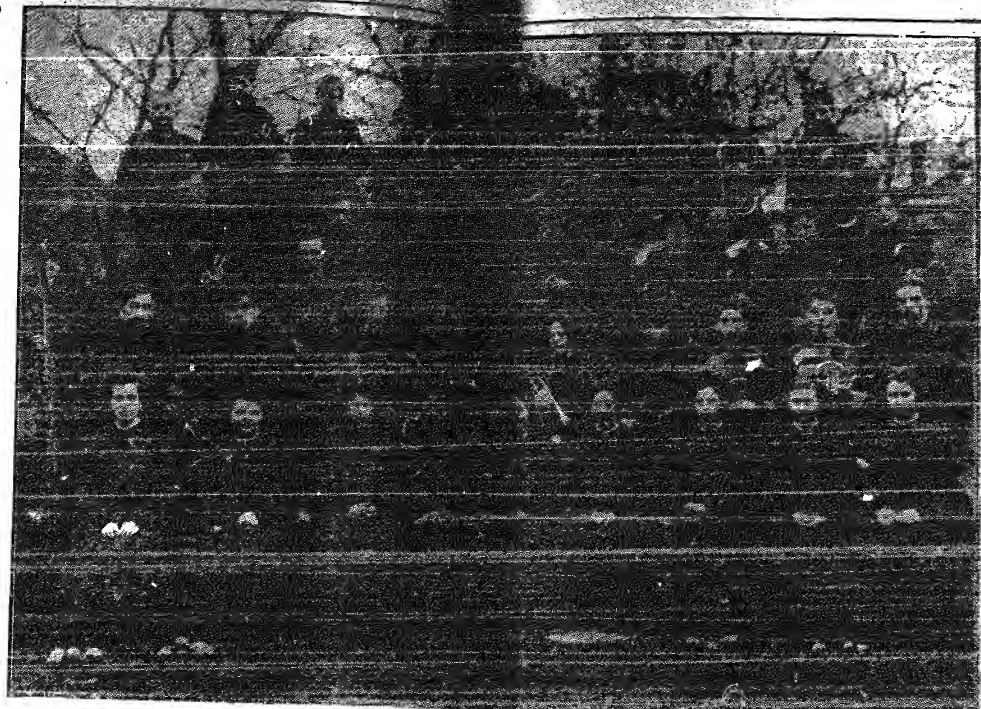

Colo
Lent
cock,
Sault
On party where held, rende son of the C It wa had c and l oppo with Baws
Sault word
Th greet lent

hand spea men was den kne fore

one ther brin on for the nigh ope
T men pow
the
was me
The

and ing ed op-oun
the
in-

A
ed
ner
lon.
arge who del.
end with sity for Cap.
de.
nter
ene.
with

This Picture Represents the Three Organizations of Young People Organized at Toronto. They are: 1. The Territorial Young People's Organization; 2. The Girls' Physical Culture Brigade; 3. The Girls' Physical Culture Brigade; Leader, Captain Ernest Stitt.

THE GENERAL COMMISSIONER

CONDUCTS A Vigorous Campaign in Portsmouth Hippodrome

Sir George Courzens Presides on Sunday Afternoon—Spoke of Naval and Military Leaguers.

HIS great town of naval, military, and Salvation Army traditions, has been powerfully moved by The General's visit. Portsmouth is noted for its crowds. They are called, are more fully represented here than in any other town south of the Thames. Who ever has witnessed the teeming thousands surging along Commercial Road on a Saturday night, will not soon forget the scene. No wonder that The General's hear was moved by that spectacle of men and women disregarding God and intent upon everything but their responsibility to God. His compassionate soul yearns over them.

"The people—the people—the poor people; let us do all we can for the people," was the burden of The General's heart and the expression of his lips, as soon as he reached his hotel on Saturday night. It could not be anything else than the burden of his message on the morrow. This feeling kindled an instant and unanimous response to his address could not be mistaken. The case was well put by a rough speech, heavy, who, at the end of the speech, spoke of the need of the Salvation Army.

It was quite in keeping that Old No. 1 Corps, of the Territory should be the first on the list. The beautiful new City was just on fire for the Sunday morning meeting with Soldiers adherents.

The Corps has made good progress lately, under Captain and Mrs. Stitt. The beautiful new City was just on fire for the Sunday morning meeting with Soldiers adherents.

The Corps has made good progress lately, under Captain and Mrs. Stitt. The beautiful new City was just on fire for the Sunday morning meeting with Soldiers adherents.

opened, with "God is keeping His Soldiers fighting." Brigadier Mowbray pleaded for God's presence and power to be much felt. A solo by the writer, and the Commissioner in on his feet. He was given a real, wholehearted welcome. His address had the right ring with it, and was as a nail fastened in a sore place. They sat with eyes, ears, and many with hearts open, hanging on every word. The visible results were a little disappointing, after such a powerful appeal. There were two surrenders.

Dovercourt Corps has the appearance of being an attractive Corps and is to be congratulated on having Adjutant and Mrs. Habbick to head it on. There are far-reaching opportunities in this district for our work, and we are hoping to see the Corps double itself during the winter months. May God grant it!

Living Street.—(Sunday night) A splendid open air service preceded the one inside, the Commissioner heading a very lengthy procession. The powerful band gathered a large crowd, with their sweet music, who followed and packed the Citadel. Nobody can visit this wonderful Corps without being impressed with the magnitude of the opportunity there is of doing a mighty work for God and eternity. We believe Captain and Mrs. Osborne with their devoted soldiery, will have a witness of good service.

The Commissioner spoke on the inspired by God and great work that fully with his audience on matters of eternal import. It was made a terrible place for the sinner as his sins were exposed, and his conscience laid bare. God's great love to man was proclaimed, and the remedy provided for his redemption. There were six surrenders.—J. S. P.

The Chief Secretary VISITS THE TWO SOOS AND SUDBURY.

Warmly Welcomed by the Three Mayors —44 at Mercy Seat.

Colonel Mapp, accompanied by Lieutenant Storey, Adjutant Peacock, and Ensign Pebow, visited Sault Ste Marie for the weekend. On Saturday, December 4th, the party arrived at the Canadian Soo, where a grand open-air meeting was held, the band turning out well, and rendering good service. Mayor Simpson extended a hearty welcome to the Colonel at the inside meeting. It was the first time this gentleman had ever been on an Army platform and he said he was glad of such an opportunity of showing his sympathy with The Salvation Army. Mr. Dawson, a well known resident of Sault Ste. Marie, also spoke warm words of welcome.

The Colonel replied to these greetings, and then gave an excellent address on the work of The Salvation Army. So pathetic were some of the incidents he related, that tears came to many eyes.

After the meeting, whilst shaking hands with those who remained to speak to him, the Colonel met two men rather the worse for liquor. One was a Dutchman, who had been kicked from God. Both of the men knelt and asked God for pardon before they left the hall, and the Colonel asked for a volunteer to take them home, look after them and bring them round to the meetings on Sunday. A comrade volunteered for this duty, and to the joy of all, the men came to the Sunday meetings one taking his stand in the open air.

The holiness meeting was commenced at 10 a.m. and was a very powerful and blessed time, in fact, the Chief Secretary remarking that it was one of the most successful meetings he has ever conducted. The hall was well filled, and the people listened with intense interest to the Colonel's words. Deep convictions came over many as the speaker pierced their souls, and before the close of the meeting thirty-five came forward to the mercy seat, some for salvation and some for sanctification. Women and Mrs. Pebow are in charge of this Corps.

On Sunday afternoon the party crossed over to the American city, and were warmly welcomed by His Honor Mayor Sullivan. The Rev. Smith, Baptist, opened the meeting with prayer, and after the Colonel's address, the Rev. Kennedy, Presbyterian, and Judge Holden, spoke a few words each very complimentary to The Army. The latter gentleman kindly entertained the Colonel during his stay in the city. A storm storm broke over the city before the evening, making it impossible to hold an open-air. The attendance was thus very small, and under the circumstances the Colonel held a holiness meeting with the Soldiers with the result that six came forward to consecrate themselves to God. Ensign and Mrs. Clark are in command here.

On Monday the party travelled to Sudbury. Owing to a storm, the train was delayed, and they did not arrive till about 8.30 p.m. A warm welcome awaited them, however, and Mayor McLeod, a prominent merchant of the town, spoke warmly in favour of The Army.

The Colonel gave a striking address at the conclusion of which a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Scott and seconded by Mayor Leckie, both of whom are warm friends and supporters of The Army. Captain Lewis and Lieutenant Jennings are in charge here.

The kindness and devotion of the Officers at all the Corps visited, deeply touched the Colonel and he wishes to put on record his appreciation of all services rendered.

A Clean Bill of Health.

That is What The Salvation Army Institution at Halifax Gets After a Visit by the Chairman of the Board of Health.

Are you ready for inspection? Is your place clean?

Adjutant Sheard, of The Salvation Army "Harbour" in Halifax, could certainly say this, and give the lie to the report made to the officer of the Board of Health, which he reported without investigation. The following extract from the Halifax Evening "Mail," speaks for itself:—

"The Board of Health, at its meeting yesterday afternoon, at which Messrs. Butler, Corston, O'Brien and Shaffer were present, made the amende honorable, in reference to its former action in regard to The Salvation Army Harbour. Adjutant Sheard, who is in charge of the Home, was present, and spoke to the Board concerning Dr. Chisholm's statement about that institution."

The Adjutant said that up to the time Dr. Chisholm had made the statement that member of the Board had not visited the institution. He had made the charge on the strength of a report heard on the street. He had invited the members of the Board to pay a personal visit to the House. The Chairman of the Board had responded to the invitation and could speak of conditions there.

Salvation Army "Harbour's" Great Work.

The Adjutant pointed out that during November, 1,000 men had been accommodated at the Harbour. Coffee and buns had been supplied to 850 men. All the beds, 41 in number, are constantly in use. Only ten of these are available for transients each night, as the regular visitors occupy the others.

The fumigating apparatus is extensive enough to provide for disinfecting of two hundred beds.

"Occasionally," said the Adjutant, "drunken men call at the Home for a bed. They are placed in special beds, which are invariably fumigated the next morning."

The Adjutant said that he had recently come from Toronto where he had had charge of the finest Salvation Army Home in Canada.

(Continued on page 11.)

THE WEEK-END'S DESPATCHES

There is Good News in These Reports.

BE SURE TO READ THEM.

MAJOR McLEAN AT AN OLD SPOT.

Adjutant Jaynes Feels Like Dancing.

Dartmouth.—We have just had a visit from our new Divisional Commander, Major McLean, who conducted our united meeting on Monday, Nov. 29th. Although it was a very stormy night, quite a number turned out to welcome the Major, who at one time laboured here as a Cadet. Quite a number of the city Officers were present, including Adjutant Jaynes, whose feet won't keep still; Ensign Weir, who favoured us with a Scotch solo; Captain Turner, the Cashier; Captain Hiles, and other comrades. At the close one soul fully yielded to God.—W. J. S.

HOT TIMES FOR BACKSLIDERS.

Four Return Home.

Montreal IV.—The efforts of Captain McMillan and Lieutenant Well, and have been very much blessed by God. On Monday, November 22nd two souls surrendered themselves to God, one being an ex-Bandsman for whom we have long prayed.

On Sunday we had a dedication service. Two comrades gave their little ones to the Lord.

A special invitation was given to backsliders on Sunday night, two of whom surrendered.

We are sorry to say good bye to Captain McMillan. Captain and Mrs. Harbour are our incoming C. O.—An Israelite.

REVIVAL MEETINGS STARTED.

Winnipeg II.—On Saturday night two souls came to the mercy seat. Another came on Sunday morning. The afternoon and evening meetings were led by Captain Walker, of T. H. Q.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 29th, we held the first of our united Revival Meetings with No. III. (Next week we go to No. III.) Staff Captain MacAmmond led, assisted by other city Officers. An interesting feature of the meeting was the enrollment of three converts.

A half-night of prayer was recently held.

Captain Vickers and Lieutenant Crowell are leading on—T. D. and R. C. Lusted.

VISITORS AT HIGH RIVER.

High River.—The Corps is going ahead. We had Captain Hutchinson and Captain McGrath for the week-end, and on Wednesday, Ensign Hardy and Captain Plesier came. There was a good meeting at night, and one backslider returned to the fold.

On Friday night Ensign Hardy gave us the magic lantern service, "The Shadow of a Great City." The Hall was crowded to overflowing.—A Soldier.

TEMPERANCE AND SALVATION AT DOVERCOURT.

Four Choose the Right Path.

Temperance Sunday at Dovercourt, was characterised by the manifestation of the power of God. In the holiness meeting one dear man came out for salvation. The afternoon speakers were Brother Rowell, Brother Marshall and Brother Joe Neidrie who bore testimony to the power of God which saved them from strong drink.

The night meeting, made attractive by song and testimony, and made more powerful through the word recorded in Rev. vi, resulted in three seeking salvation. One Sister was the wife of the man who got saved in the morning meeting.—Josh

A BURDEN LIFTED.

How It Was Done.

Brantford.—During the past month twenty-six souls have been brought in. Two came out for salvation on Sunday, November 29th.

A great burden on us, in the shape of finances for the winter's fuel and repairs to the furnace of our Hall has been lifted, and we are free. How did it happen? You saw the Officers and Locals met and decided to ask the Soldiers and comrades for $100.00. No hesitating was done; God upheld our faith, and when the total was taken in, there was just $110.00. Praise God!

The majority of our comrades are coming on well.—F. D. C. C.

HALL WANTS EXPANDING.

We have had some glorious meetings at Leamington. The old Hall is too small to accommodate the crowds so the comrades will not be sorry when they get into their new Citadel.

The Junior Work is going ahead in fine style, and finances have doubled.

The weeknight meetings are good and on Sunday night two souls came to the Cross—Captain Golden and Lieutenant Barker.

SPECIALS AT IMPERIAL CITY.

Ottawa I. Corps.—During a recent week-end, our Band visited Carleton Place, with Staff Captain Bloes. In their absence Captain T. Richards and his concertina, and Sergeant-Major Leckie, with his cornet, put in a good week-end.

On November 29th, our meetings, Sunday morning and night, were led by Captain and Mrs. Harbour, (old comrades of this Corps.) We enjoyed their visit. Our Officers are Captain R. Thompson and Captain Simmonds.—M. O. T.

Blenheim.—An enjoyable musical meeting was recently conducted here by Captain G. H. Hincham and Bout and Lieutenant Barker. Violin, mouthorgan, cornet and vocal solos were included in the programme.

DEFIED THE STORM.

(From the Ottawa Citizen Herald.)

On Monday evening Nov. 29th, notwithstanding the gale that was blowing at a rate of 25 miles an hour, and accompanied by a heavy snow storm, the Salvation Army lads and ladies held their usual open-air service on Reg. Avenue East. There were very few who felt disposed to stop and listen to their singing and exhortations, but above the howl of the gale, and the sweeping of the elements they stood by their posts like Titans of old, ready to give up all in the name of duty. It was a beautiful example of heroism and of deserving of special commendation. As we have said before, we honour the Salvation Army for what they are accomplishing for the good of mankind, and it is by such self-sacrifice and by this great organization has been able to accomplish so much practical good in the world. We thank them for their faith with many blessings.

At Parrboro, eight souls recently came to Christ. The meetings have been conducted by Captain Steteburg, Captain Miller, the new G. B. M. man, has also been with us, and his lantern service was very much enjoyed.—G. G. G.

SINNERS GETTING SAVED, AND DEVIL GETTING MAD.

God is blessing us in a wonderful way at St. Stephen, N. B. At our open-air on Saturday, a drunken man tried to interrupt us, but could not manage it. At the holiness meeting on Sunday, we had a glorious time, and at night five souls stepped into the fountain. We had a good, uplifting Hallelujah wind-up.

The devil got so mad at the open-air on Monday night, that he made one man smack Captain Davies in the face, which did not upset that worthy one bit.

The Soldiers' meeting on Tuesday, was a heart-breaking time and four comrades sought the blessing. Glory to God. Truly a remarkable run of meetings. We are in for a revival.—Corps Cor.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK AT SUSSEX.

Sussex, N. B.—Three souls have sought forgiveness of sin, in the holiness meeting on Sunday, Nov. 29th, one young woman came forward for sanctification.

We have welcomed in our midst some good Salvationists. Brother Smith and his wife.

Our Hall is in splendid condition. New carpet has been placed along the sides. Lieutenant Allen is in charge.—M. M. O.

Paris.—Captain and Mrs. Taylor led us on to war on Sunday, in the afternoon Captain Taylor and Rev. Mr. Bligham conducted the funeral of a dear friend—Brother Green—who was killed in the middle last Friday.

On Sunday night one backslider returned, and one comrade illustrated his life to God.—M. M. O.

Sussex.—On Sunday, Nov. 29th, a backslider returned to God.—M. M. O.

VANCOUVER STAFF AT RIVLE.

Memorial Service.

Vancouver City.—The staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

and Mrs. Findlay at Temple.

First Sunday Campaign in Toronto.

Sunday, December 6th, Major and Mrs. Findlay were at the Temple, they conducted their first meetings in Toronto. From morning till Sunday night, the influence of the whole-souled testimonies, the earnest enthusiasm of the men and band, and to several was, it was learned, from two or three o'clock on Sunday morning on behalf of the meeting. The result affected the day for good: a revival in the air was imminent.

Attendances at the holiness meetings were very good, and at night the Hall (gayer) was practically full. Findlay's talk was enjoyed, the unavowed to decision in the way of a decision, she told of a dear boy she knew, who was perplexed as to what to do, she told of a dear boy she knew, who was perplexed as to what to do.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

On Sunday, November 29th, the staff of the Vancouver City Corps, held a memorial service on Sunday, Nov. 29th, at the Rivle. The service was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of comrades.

and Mrs. Findlay at Temple.

The Reopening of Peterborough Citadel.

Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Gaskin and Brigadier Hargrave Conduct Meetings—The Mayor and Aldermen and Other Prominent Citizens Warmly Eulogize Work of Army.

It was a joyful day for the Peterborough Salvationists, when their Hall was formally reopened, after undergoing extensive alterations and repairs. Lieut.-Colonel Gaskin and Brigadier Hargrave came down to conduct the weekend services, and many prominent citizens showed their sympathy with the Army's work by occupying the platform and speaking warm words of congratulation.

On Saturday night the chair was taken by Hon. J. B. Stratton, M.P., who has for many years been one of the staunchest friends of the Army in the city. He paid a high tribute to the good work of the Army and gave a short, but all-round review of what they were doing as he had observed them. He further showed his interest in the movement by donating $100.00 towards the expenses of renovating the Citadel.

Both Colonel and Mrs. Gaskin addressed the meeting the Colonel giving an admirable description of the many-sided mission of The Army. His Honour Judge Irvine, was then called upon by the chairman for a few words, and very warmly he expressed his sentiments regarding The Army.

The Sunday afternoon meeting was presided over by Mayor Hux, and on the platform with him, were Aldermen Morgan, Gillespie, Duncan, Morrow and McEachern; also Sheriff Hall, Chief of Police Russell and Chief Clerk Howard. The Hall was packed to the doors. In his opening remarks, the Mayor assured all of his sympathy with The Army, and wished them continued prosperity in their good work. The Aldermen expressed themselves likewise.

Brigadier Morris and Brigade at Barrie.

Nineteen Seekers at the Cross.

Brigadier Morris and a Brigade of Officers visited an old battlefield—Barrie—on December 4th and 5th. Their first open-air engagement on the "Five Points" drew a big crowd. Father Miles, who, by the way, has already sold nearly two hundred Christmas Crisps on the streets) felt so happy that he could not refrain from expressing his feelings in a "welcome speech" to the Brigadier.

The indoor meeting was well attended. Captain Palmer made a special appeal for early risers to attend kneeling on Sunday morning, with the result that twenty-five came along.

The holiness meeting was a spiritual feast. At the close of Captain Palmer's address fifteen persons plunged into the cleansing fountain.

At both afternoon and night services the Hall was full. At night, following a solo by Brigadier Morris, and Major Creighton's query, "Are there few that be saved?" one hand was raised, the owner signifying a desire for salvation. The prayer meeting and battle for souls began in real earnest. Before it's Lieut. Colonel Gaskin then gave an instructive address; briefly reviewing the work of The Army, and illustrating his facts by many amusing and pathetic anecdotes. J. S.M. Braund then said a few words, expressing his gratitude for the completion of the work of remodelling the Citadel, and thanking all who had contributed towards it, or had any share in the matter at all.

A vote of thanks to the chairman was then moved by Colonel Gaskin, seconded by Brigadier Hargrave, and then Five Chief Howard moved a vote of thanks to Colonel and Mrs. Gaskin for coming, which was seconded by Chief of Police Russell. Both motions were carried with enthusiasm.

The evening meeting was a time of much power and blessing. Mrs. Gaskin spoke forcefully, and the Colonel gave a most eloquent and powerful address. Five souls came to the mercy seat during the prayer meeting.

On Monday night a banquet and musical festival was held, presided over by Judge Irvine.

The Citadel has been remodelled, at a cost of $100,000, and is now a very handsome and up-to-date building, capable of accommodating far larger crowds than formerly. At the back is a spacious band room, while the basement is devoted to the J. S. Work. Fifteen class rooms have been constructed around an auditorium thus providing ample room to teach the Juniors, a much-needed improvement. The whole work is very creditable to those who have had the task of making the Citadel will more than ever be the place where souls shall be brought to God.

Brigadier Scott Potter at Brantford.

Major and Mrs. Green Assist.

The Financial Secretary spent the weekend, December 4th and 5th, at the strong S. A. fortress of Brantford, and had a magnificent reception, and good time altogether.

On Saturday night, the Brigadier, attired in Japanese costume, delivered his lecture on Japan. The Hall was packed with an attentive and interested crowd, who laughed heartily at the curious customs of the people of the Orient, but were still more impressed with the religious side of Japanese life, and The Army's efforts in this connection.

Sunday was a delightful day, so far as the weather was concerned, and in point of interest, crowds and blessings. God was very near in the holiness meeting.

The Band and the Songsters rendered wholesome service all day.

At all the previous meetings the Hall was full, but at night people were standing.

It was with the greatest expectation that souls would be saved, that the prayer meeting was entered upon, and before it was finally concluded six souls had been dealt with at the mercy seat.

An early return visit of the Specials was asked for.

The Officers in charge, Ensign and Mrs. Baird, are meeting with good success. Special services, drawing good crowds, are held every Saturday night. An important series of Soldiers' meetings is about to be entered upon—Wanderer.

Major Phillips and Brigade at Toronto VII.

A Good Soul-Saving Weekend.

Major Phillips and his brigade of Officers, conducted special weekend meetings at Parliament Street, on Saturday and Sunday, December 4th and 5th.

The Hall proved to be far too small to accommodate the crowds which attended every meeting.

On Saturday night music and song were freely indulged in. Captain Marshall was again in the forefront with his attractive solos. Major Phillips' address, delivered in his lecture, and those persons sought the Saviour at the mercy seat.

On Sunday the meetings were equally crowded and blessed by God. At both outdoor and indoor meetings interest never flagged. One soul came forward in the holiness meeting. At night another sought the pardon of God's sins. One convert had been a backslider for over nine years.

Captain Neil and Lieutenant Howard are pursuing the War at Toronto VII.

A CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH.

(Continued from page 9.)

Army Hotel in that city. The reports which were forwarded, were detrimental to him and to the institution of which he was the head.

Chairman Vinickie's Institution.

Chairman Butler said he had visited the Institution since the report to the Board had been made. Everything was perfectly clean—sanitary—fine so. Two beds were reserved especially for persons of particular habits, and these were isolated and were fumigated daily after use.

On motion of Mr. J. M. Carson, the visit of the Chairman will be considered as an official visit, and the Board will advise The Salvation Army that everything has been found satisfactory.

CLEANLINESS IS NEXT TO GODLINESS.

We are still having victory at Brandon. On Sunday, November 14th, good meeting, very late at night. One soul came to the Cross at night. On Monday night a Young People's meeting was held by Brothers Evans and Stone. At the time a young girl came to the front and found salvation—C. E.

First Sunday Campaign in Toronto.

Sunday, December 5th, Major and Mrs. Findlay were at the Temple, they conducted their first of meetings in Toronto. From morning till Sunday night.

Gift of God was felt. The attributed influence of this whole-souled testimonies, went to make up a good day, first-rate enthusiasm of the Band, and to several who, it was learned, prayed two or three o'clock on Sunday morning on behalf of the meeting. The result affected the day's for good; a revival in the Toronto Holiness.

Attendance at the holiness afternoon meetings were very large at night the Hall (gallery) was practically full.

Findlay's talk was enjoyed, the unavowed to decision for although the way might be obscure, she told of a deal of things she knew, whose was perplexed as to how should point her way to Christ. Sunday night he was found at the Band played the hymn "In Saul," on the way to the Hall; thousands of people were on the sidewalks. The doors were packed to the doors.

Adjutant Howell spoke of power; God came down and souls were saved. The testimonies; people are being made whole; sinners are getting back; and souls are being saved.

We can rejoice with the forward for sanctification by the close of the Major's address five souls sought salvation.

On Saturday night, one lady who had come from the back of her daughter, came converted in the meeting.

Sunday November 7th, the dear us, right from the heart of the night meeting. His presence. At night a soul-saving time. The power descended upon the Adjutant Howell spoke of the text, "Where Art Thou?"

Listeners trembled, and four yielded to the Saviour. One sister, who had been a backslider, volunteered out of the struggle accepted the Saviour. She sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour.

Prize the Lord. The Lord is the Lord. The Lord is the Lord. The Lord is the Lord.

Riversdale—Ensign and Mrs. Findlay were at the Temple, they conducted their first of meetings in Toronto. From morning till Sunday night.

Gift of God was felt. The attributed influence of this whole-souled testimonies, went to make up a good day, first-rate enthusiasm of the Band, and to several who, it was learned, prayed two or three o'clock on Sunday morning on behalf of the meeting.

The result affected the day's for good; a revival in the Toronto Holiness.

Attendance at the holiness afternoon meetings were very large at night the Hall (gallery) was practically full.

Findlay's talk was enjoyed, the unavowed to decision for although the way might be obscure, she told of a deal of things she knew, whose

was perplexed as to how should point her way to Christ. Sunday night he was found at the Band played the hymn "In Saul," on the way to the Hall; thousands of people were on the sidewalks. The doors were packed to the doors.

Adjutant Howell spoke of power; God came down and souls were saved. The testimonies; people are being made whole; sinners are getting back; and souls are being saved.

We can rejoice with the forward for sanctification by the close of the Major's address five souls sought salvation.

On Saturday night, one lady who had come from the back of her daughter, came converted in the meeting.

Sunday November 7th, the dear us, right from the heart of the night meeting. His presence. At night a soul-saving time. The power descended upon the Adjutant Howell spoke of the text, "Where Art Thou?"

Listeners trembled, and four yielded to the Saviour. One sister, who had been a backslider, volunteered out of the struggle accepted the Saviour. She sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour.

Prize the Lord. The Lord is the Lord. The Lord is the Lord.

Riversdale—Ensign and Mrs. Findlay were at the Temple, they conducted their first of meetings in Toronto. From morning till Sunday night.

Gift of God was felt. The attributed influence of this whole-souled testimonies, went to make up a good day, first-rate enthusiasm of the Band, and to several who, it was learned, prayed two or three o'clock on Sunday morning on behalf of the meeting.

The result affected the day's for good; a revival in the Toronto Holiness.

Attendance at the holiness afternoon meetings were very large at night the Hall (gallery) was practically full.

Findlay's talk was enjoyed, the unavowed to decision for although the way might be obscure, she told of a deal of things she knew, whose

was perplexed as to how should point her way to Christ. Sunday night he was found at the Band played the hymn "In Saul," on the way to the Hall; thousands of people were on the sidewalks. The doors were packed to the doors.

Adjutant Howell spoke of power; God came down and souls were saved. The testimonies; people are being made whole; sinners are getting back; and souls are being saved.

We can rejoice with the forward for sanctification by the close of the Major's address five souls sought salvation.

On Saturday night, one lady who had come from the back of her daughter, came converted in the meeting.

Sunday November 7th, the dear us, right from the heart of the night meeting. His presence. At night a soul-saving time. The power descended upon the Adjutant Howell spoke of the text, "Where Art Thou?"

Listeners trembled, and four yielded to the Saviour. One sister, who had been a backslider, volunteered out of the struggle accepted the Saviour. She sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour.

Prize the Lord. The Lord is the Lord. The Lord is the Lord.

Riversdale—Ensign and Mrs. Findlay were at the Temple, they conducted their first of meetings in Toronto. From morning till Sunday night.

Gift of God was felt. The attributed influence of this whole-souled testimonies, went to make up a good day, first-rate enthusiasm of the Band, and to several who, it was learned, prayed two or three o'clock on Sunday morning on behalf of the meeting.

The result affected the day's for good; a revival in the Toronto Holiness.

Attendance at the holiness afternoon meetings were very large at night the Hall (gallery) was practically full.

Findlay's talk was enjoyed, the unavowed to decision for although the way might be obscure, she told of a deal of things she knew, whose

was perplexed as to how should point her way to Christ. Sunday night he was found at the Band played the hymn "In Saul," on the way to the Hall; thousands of people were on the sidewalks. The doors were packed to the doors.

Adjutant Howell spoke of power; God came down and souls were saved. The testimonies; people are being made whole; sinners are getting back; and souls are being saved.

We can rejoice with the forward for sanctification by the close of the Major's address five souls sought salvation.

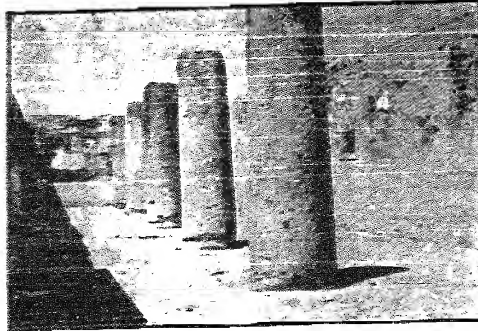

On Saturday night, one lady who had come from the back of her daughter, came converted in the meeting.

Sunday November 7th, the dear us, right from the heart of the night meeting. His presence. At night a soul-saving time. The power descended upon the Adjutant Howell spoke of the text, "Where Art Thou?"

Listeners trembled, and four yielded to the Saviour. One sister, who had been a backslider, volunteered out of the struggle accepted the Saviour. She sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour, and she sought the Saviour.

Temples of a Lost Race.

How Excavated and Explored by American Archaeologists.

In the Hall of Columns, at Mitla. The Columns Are in One Piece, About Twelve Feet in Height.

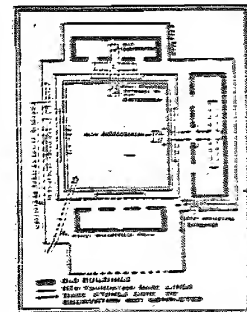

AMERICAN archaeologists are gradually working out the story of prehistoric America, and in the southern portions of the southern continent, they are finding what has been described as the Egypt of America. Professor Marshall at Seattle has recently been digging in the vicinity of the famous Mitla ruins and has been uncovering the discovery of a second prehistoric chamber, containing in shape, it turned out to be the ruined temple of the lost "Aztec" race. These prehistoric remains are situated in the case of Mitla in Mexico. They are especially remarkable for the detailed design that covers the surfaces of a large portion of the walls which are built up from small stones placed with marvellous accuracy, sometimes with and sometimes without the aid of cement.

Although the excavation remains at Mitla have long been known to archaeologists, it was not until Professor Seville, in the prehistorical department of the American Museum of Natural History, visited the recently discovered ruins, that any real study was thrown upon them. Professor Seville was the first to give any extended account of Mitla; he wrote his account, which is in old Spanish, and was difficult to translate, it is 1774, and it refers to prehistoric chambers of chambers. According to these suggestions, Professor Seville made a careful search for the ruins, and in the ruins of prehistoric chambers in the country, the Mitla ruins had foundations and underground rooms. Under the main building, in the ruins, he eventually discovered the foundations of the ruins, in a "subterranean" the "subterranean" foundations of which are shown on the small plan given here. The "subterranean" foundations of the ruins are very singular. A singular tomb was also discovered a few miles from Mitla; the form of a cross is said to be prominent in all other architecture and certainly had some deep significance. Two skeletons were found in these proximity to the site which opened the entrance to the "subterranean" the discovery by Professor Seville.

During the earlier portion of the work of excavation, the steps of the great stairway were discovered. These were found to be very high and narrow so that the foot could only be placed upon them sideways. The oldest description of the ruins of the Mitla palace is found in the one already referred to by Fray Francisco de Duran, of Oaxaca. His interesting, although somewhat confused and contradictory account runs as follows:

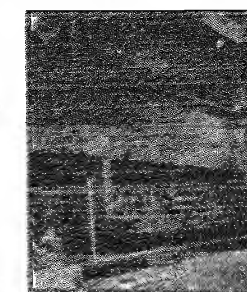

"They built, in this square, the beautiful house or mansion, with garden and watercourses, the buildings of the country which was found under the earth, equaling in style the halls which enclosed it, having a spacious court. To build the four walls they worked with the force and industry they could secure from a barbarous people. It is not known from what quarry they could have cut out such good pillars, if built thus with difficulty two men could understand with their arms extended. These without capital or pedestal, straight and smooth, are more than five yards long, composed each in a single piece and covered with a fine red. The two walls of the ruins, 2 ft. or more high and 12 ft. thick and in some places, unfortunately, the first stones are so much alike and so well approximated to the height, that without great care to count, they passed for a single piece. The ruins, however, are so much alike and so well approximated to the height, that without great care to count, they passed for a single piece. The ruins, however, are so much alike and so well approximated to the height, that without great care to count, they passed for a single piece.

Plan of Mitla Ruins. Showing position of principal excavations.

The small stones used in building up the rising structure on the Mitla walls, were placed in regular courses with, and sometimes without mortar or cement, and in fact, after a long lapse of time, these patterns which so clearly resemble the Greek Doric, are to-day never still perfect.

The walls, according to Duran, are the work of the first nation of the world, as that nation, the Aztecs, and the Aztecs have names of this kind of workmanship. The center of the wall is of a smooth, so strong that we do not know with what liquid it was made. The sculptured blocks serve to hold the vulnerable blocks while others, built along with the stone part of an off, and the half of an off wide, as smooth and similar that it seems as if they were made to a mould.

The door frames were very ornate, composed of a double ridge of the thickness of the wall of each side. The panels or architecture, was a single stone which held the two halves. There were four halls above and four below. They were divided in this way. There is some record as a chapel and sanctuary for the gods, which were placed on a large stone that served as an altar at the great feast or at the funeral of some king or principal chief. The superior gave notice to the lower priests and they should arrange the vestments and decorate the chapel and prepare the sacrifice.

A general history of religious art published, thus refers to the Toltecs and their successors, the Aztecs:— "Before the Spanish conquest, Mexico and Peru had adopted a high degree of culture. The Toltecs had temples, pyramids, tombs, palaces, a solar calendar, and astronomical writing, which is but partially decipherable. Although they worshipped gods in natural forms, birds, and serpents, they also adorned some in human form. The principal god of the Toltecs, a civilization here, was like the Egyptian Osiris, the friend of man, who taught them to till the fields; then he disappeared, but with a promise to return every day. The god of the Aztecs was a sort of Mars, warlike and implacable, who required human sacrifices. Their religion, as their art and science, which were placed the specimens, especially in decorative architecture, lost name and became abandoned."

Adj. Moultin Promoted.

He was One of Newfoundland's Chief Officers.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Dec. 10.—The late promotion of the Newfoundland and Labrador Mounted Rifles, when the news was spreading to the passing away of Adj. Moultin, and a wave of sorrow swept over the assembled officers. The Adjutant was one of the chief officers of the Newfoundland and Labrador Mounted Rifles, and his death was a great loss to the regiment. He was a man of high character and a fine officer. He was born in St. John's, Nfld., and had been in the service of the Newfoundland and Labrador Mounted Rifles for many years. He was a member of the St. John's Rifle Club and the St. John's Rifle Association. He was a man of high character and a fine officer. He was born in St. John's, Nfld., and had been in the service of the Newfoundland and Labrador Mounted Rifles for many years. He was a member of the St. John's Rifle Club and the St. John's Rifle Association.

He was a member of the St. John's Rifle Club and the St. John's Rifle Association.

OUR MISSIONARY REINFORCEMENTS.

November 25th 1900.

Several parties of reinforcements have been got together for service in different Missionary Countries. A Japanese party will leave for the Philippines on November 25th. It will consist of seven officers, including Captain Anli Beckley, and Captain Mrs. Charles, of Denmark; Captain Nilsen, of Sweden; Lieutenant Engelsen, of Sweden; and Lieutenant Berntsen, of Holland. They will proceed to their new task and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

Adjutant Moultin. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

AUSTRALASIA.

Colonel Brangle's Coming Campaign. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

FOR THE LEPROS. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

Salvation Army Officer Creates Her Life to the Service of the Lepers in Java. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

WHAT LEPROSY IS LIKE. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

In our International News. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines. The reinforcements will be sent to the Philippines, and will be the first of the reinforcements to leave for the Philippines.

It has been found the name of Charles Beckley, of England, a number of other officers selected for service in Java. This comrade's case is of interest, inasmuch as he has served marching orders for a long time, in that case is, without doubt, one of the most self-sacrificing branches of the Army service.

"Nevertheless," says the C.

OUR INTERNATIONAL NEWS LETTER

MISSIONARY REINFORCEMENTS.

November 25th, 1909.

Several parties of reinforcements having got together for service in different Missionary Comities. The Japanese party will leave first. It will consist of seven Officers, as follows: Captain Axel Backley, of Denmark; Captain "Ed" Nilsson; Lieutenant Maria Jo. Nilsson; and Lieutenant Engobord Nilsson, of Sweden; and Lieutenant Dorsten, of Holland. They proceeded to their new battle line by the Netherland Line steamer "Konink Willem I." leaving Southampton on November 20th.

Adjutant and Mrs. William Joy, at present in charge of the Naval and Military Home at Portsmouth, will be for Trinidad, on December 8th, the S.S. "Thames."

A few months ago he was in America. Adjutant and Mrs. Booth, who have been furloughing in this country, will leave Southampton on their return journey on December 10th. They will take charge of a small party of Officers, including the two Lieutenants mentioned at the close of the British mission.

The Indian party, numbering seven, will leave on December 17th by the "City of Manchester," for Bombay. This party comprises four young women from the Swedish Nursing Home, who received their commissions as Officers at the close of the Session, and two other women Officers, who are being trained in this country. Major Raymond (Dryne), an experienced Indian Officer, returning from furlough, will be in charge of the party.

AUSTRALASIA.

Colonel Bringle's Coming Campaigns. It has been arranged that Colonel Bringle will pay a visit to Australia and New Zealand in the New Year, in order to conduct a great holiness and Revival Campaign. It is proposed that the Colonel shall sail from San Francisco to New Zealand early in February. Three months will probably be spent in the North and South Islands of New Zealand, after which the Colonel will go on to Australia.

The Last Train Home On Christmas Eve. A picture that will awaken memories in the minds of those who have left London for Canada.

ASIA.

Opening of Kyoto Hall.

Our recently purchased Hall at Kyoto, Japan was opened on November 3rd, the Emperor's birthday. It is a beautiful building, which is entered through a picturesque gateway. The ground floor of the Hall is provided with seats but the gallery, which runs across the back part of the building, is fitted with tatami, or reed mats, upon which the people sit in Japanese fashion, having left their shoes or sandals at the door on entering. Altogether, the building gives accommodation for four hundred persons.

A large crowd assembled for the opening services, which were conducted by Acting-Commissioner Hodel.

An Indian Commissioning.

The commissioning of the twenty-nine Cadets who have passed through the Session in the Central Training Home at Bombay, was conducted on November 22nd, by Commissioner Fakir Singh. These Cadets came from all the six Territories to which our work in India and Ceylon is divided for purposes of administration. Three were Europeans, the remainder being English-speaking natives of India or Ceylon.

A Woman Jemadar.

Brigadier Yesu Das (Himmat Singh) reports upon a meeting at a village called Apicuta, in the Telegu country, which was conducted by Colonel Sena Singh. At this meeting the number of women who came forward to seek salvation, considerably exceeded that of the men. This is an extremely unusual occurrence in India, but in this case it was probably due to the influence of a remarkable woman Jemadar or Sergeant who has been faithfully standing by the Flag in this village for a considerable time past.

AMERICA.

Buffalo Rescue Home.

Last year no fewer than sixty women were committed to our Rescue Home by the Court Judge. We have in Buffalo, a woman Probationary Officer, who is constantly in attendance at the Prison, and who has succeeded in gaining the confidence of the officials and the leading people of the city.

A detached building has just been erected in connection with the Home, which is called to Hospital Annex, and is intended to be used for any infectious cases, should any necessity arise.

South American Congress.

The Annual Congress for the Officers working in the Argentine and Uruguayan Republics, was held in Buenos Ayres from November 15th to 19th, and was conducted by the new Territorial Leader, Commissioner Coandey.

AFRICA.

Enlargement of War Cry.

Our old friend, the South African War Cry, published in Cape Town, has increased the number of its pages from eight to twelve. This will enable the different aspects of the Work to be more fully represented than has been possible in the past. The circulation is already increasing satisfactorily, as a result of the change.

St. Stephen.—The open-air attendance this week-end beat all records. Cartridges well ahead. Three goals have come to God for salvation. During the month of November, eighteen persons sought the mercy seat.—Corps Corres.

FOR THE LEPERS.

Salvation Army Officer consecrates Her Life to the Service of the Lepers in Java.

WHAT LEPROSY IS LIKE.

In our International News Letter will be found the name of Captain Anle Bookley, of England, who with a number of other Officers, has been selected for service in Java. This comrade's case is of special interest, inasmuch as she has received marching orders for the Lepers' Settlement in that country. This is, without doubt, one of the most self-sacrificing branches of Salvation Army service.

"Nevertheless," says the Captain,

"I am going for life. If the Army will let me stay so long; and, at any rate, it will be for years. I am not afraid of getting the disease, for I am going on God's service. I have counted the cost and I quite understand what the risks are. I have to die—and, if needs be, I may as well die out there amongst those stricken souls."

"I have never been out of England, and I have not yet seen a leper, but I was very much interested by an account of work amongst the lepers. So, when, a few weeks ago, The Army called for volunteers to go abroad, I offered to go to Java."

"My parents count it a great honour that I am going, and, whatever they may feel, they have said nothing about any fear that I shall never come back."

Some idea of the terrible nature of this disease may be gathered from the following extract, taken from a report of a visit by the Headquarters' Staff of The Army in South Africa to the Leper Settlement on Robben Island. These comrades, with their band, pay periodical visits to this unhappy community, in order to bring them music and cheer. Describing the congregation of lepers, the writer says:—

"A certain form of leprosy appears to attack the faces of its victims, and to give them the appearance of wearing hideous masks, while another seems to confuse the ravages to the limbs, and leave the face untouched. Two little girls in the front row, could not be distinguished from old women, except in that their faces were swollen, distorted and discoloured in a manner in which even old age does not deal with the human countenance. A little further along the same seat, however, there was a young woman with a bright, cheerful face and winsome expression, about it which spoke of deep heart-dread: a glance at her hands revealed the fact that she too, was a leper. Whiteish flesh and distorted joints marking the progress of the fatal enemy."

It is to this class that Captain Anle Bookley has devoted her life. We understand that leprosy is only contagious under certain conditions; most of which may be avoided. This, however, does not detract from the value and significance of our comrade's consecration of herself to this work.

THE GENERAL

(Continued from page 5)

that town, especially in the lower parts. As a representative of the Corporation, he desired to express the interest and sympathy they felt for The Army. They had feared that The General's illness might have prevented him from coming to Portsmouth, but they were all grateful he had been spared. His energy was a lesson to the young people of the town.

Moving a vote of thanks, Councilor Perkins said: "The Bible tells us that 'The heavy head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.' We believe it to be a greater crown of glory if it be found on the shoulders of a man who is a tower of righteousness; but in the case of General Booth, if you want a name to conjure with; if you want a name which will bring you some of the best and noblest feelings; if you want one which may be associated in a true and just way with Him who went about doing good then I say you will find that name in General Booth."

The night meeting was an occasion to be long remembered. The Hippodrome, which is one of the largest, newest and best in the Kingdom, was crowded. It is built to seat four thousand, but how many hundred more stood in the gangways, sat on the stairs, or peeped between the pillars, it would be impossible to determine. Against this crowd The General directed his words—thrusts nobody escaped. His big heart overflowed with emotion, and his eyes with tears as he cried: "I want to help you, God knows I do: I feel the solemnity, the responsibility of this occasion. I feel in every effort I make now, that this may be my last. Tonight the call may come, and I may be summoned to the Judgment bar. At any rate, the number of my opportunities is fixed. I have only so many times left me to tell men and women these solemn truths."

A powerful and effective addition to the fighting forces was the presence of a strong brigade of naval and military Leaguers. One of them, an infantryman, came twenty-three miles to be present, and was due back 5.30 this morning. He would have to be up by three o'clock, in order to be in time for parade. In the meetings these Leaguers sat behind The General, a solid phalanx of praying men. When the prayer meeting opened, like real atmosphere of war, they distributed themselves among the people and fished for souls, soon to return, one after the other, escorting men and boys to the mercy seat.

"Three men from my ship converted today!" shouted another Leaguer, rubbing his hands; "that makes fifteen of us. I wish they were all saved."

A man stood by in tears, while his wife and daughter knelt together on the stage and sought Salvation. One of the eighty penitents, a well-dressed youth was wearing a pair of boots he had stolen. He is going this morning to the shopkeeper to confess.

At the close of the meeting The General left to address some old soldiers, in a Home for Pensioners, in which his host, Colonel St. Quentin, is interested.

The Christmas War Cry

Don't Miss Your Chance of Getting a Copy of This Special Number.

AN OLD CANADIAN ON THE CHRISTMAS "CRY":—

The following letter is a sample of many received by us:—
"I have just received a sample copy of the Canadian Christmas War Cry, and I feel to congratulate you on this magnificent number. The Canadian Christmas War Cry is as always been good, but I think this surpasses anything I have ever seen. I am sure it will sell like hot cakes. I appreciate the excellent reading matter contained in the War Cry."

"Again I want to congratulate you upon your success in this number, and, praying God's blessing on you, I remain, Yours beneath the Colours.—Alex. McMillan, Brisa dier. (Chief Divisional Officer.)"

Amongst Other Pictures and Illustrations the Christmas Number Contains Father's Pet and Mother's Darling—the Cover in Colours.

The Prodigal's Return—A most spirited and realistic drawing, depicting a Salvation Army prayer meeting, with a backslider coming home to God. Colonel Mitchell, our recent international visitor, after he had passed upon it, said that "no one but a Salvationist could have drawn that picture," so true to life is it.

The Chief of the Staff and the International Headquarters—A magnificent portrait of The General's eldest son; the Von Meike of The Salvation Army.

The Army Santa Claus at Work—This is a striking picture of a Canadian lassie Officer taking Christmas baskets to the poor.

Home, Sweet Home is one of our two-page pictures. It was painted by a celebrated American artist. It depicts the aged father and mother sitting in front of the fire on Christmas eve. Their thoughts are obviously bent on absent ones. Around the central picture are mini-scenes, showing the absent members of the family. The mariner on the ship, the nurse by the sick bed, the camp fire, the new settlers, etc., are tenderly depicted.

The Nativity is a magnificent presentation of the birth of our Lord, showing the angels around the manger.

A Page of Women's Rescue Work Scenes, with a Splendid New Portrait of Mrs. Commissioner Coombs.

A Page of Portraits of the Headquarters Staff.

A Combination of Lumber Camp Scenes.

Amongst the Literary Contents are

A Picture Story for Children.

Christmas Morning in the Children's Home.

"Christmas: The Home-Coming Season." By The General. It is not long, but it touches the spot in every pointed sentence, and is an article that most will read, and reread. A characteristic article.

"Bess of Bethnal Green" is a study of an East-End of London girl.

"Christmas Eve Confab" is the heading under which is grouped a series of extraordinary short stories, contributed by the male Field Officers. It would be hard to find a greater variety of human interest packed in the same space, anywhere, than in the two pages devoted to the results of this competition. You must tag the stories and send in your vote, for the writer who gets the greatest number of votes wins a ten dollar bill.

"Life's Discard Changed to Love's Harmony" is the title of a striking life-size story, told by Mr. Wendle Johnston.

"Beautifying the Temple" is the title of a beautifully decorated poem by the Editor.

"Bramwell Booth, Maker of Books." One of the features of this Special Number is, undoubtedly, Colonel Mitchell's write-up of our Chief of the Staff, entitled, "Bramwell Booth: Maker of Books." This shows the Chief from who is, perhaps, a little-known side of his manifold make-up—writer, poet, and publisher. Colonel Mitchell, as Literary Secretary to the Chief, has had many opportunities of studying Mr. Bramwell Booth at close range from this particular viewpoint. He has made good use of his opportunities, and embodied the results in a paper of absorbing interest.

"A Retrospective Reverie" is the attractive title of an article by the Commissioner. Necessarily written in the autumn, the fall of the leaves suggests a line of thought that is productive of a most inspiring article—one of the Commissioner's best.

"Our Neighbours of the Hermit Kingdom." This is a most striking narrative, shows how successful The Salvation Army has been in bringing large numbers of Koreans into the Kingdom of God.

"The Confessions of a Morphine-Maniac"—A story of suspense interest.

"Heads of Headquarters' Departments" is the title of a series of thumb-nail sketches of the Officers who are Heads of Departments at the Territorial Headquarters.

There is much other matter of Christmas character, and great interest. Altogether, this number contains one of the most attractive literary bills of fare we have ever placed before our readers.

Promoted to

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

SISTER MARY

One

Few Specimens of

Texts & Mottoes

No. 438.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 439.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 440.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 441.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 442.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 443.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 444.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 445.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 446.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 447.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 448.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

are taste bloomed in silver

earth as it is in heaven!" "The

into them that put their trust

servant." Price, each.....

No. 449.—RURAL HOME

are English Landscape designs

Cry
ting ber.

Promote

SISTER MRS. SIMON

After a long illness, Sister MRS. SIMON passed away at her home, 1000 St. Lawrence St., on November 25th, 1914. She was born on November 10, 1840, and was 74 years of age. Her funeral was held on November 27th, at 10 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Smith, 1000 St. Lawrence St. The burial was in the cemetery at 11 o'clock. We pray God to comfort the children, who are left behind.

BROTHER HOPKINS

(Late of Niagara Falls, Ont.)
On November 25th, 1914, Brother HOPKINS passed away at his home, 1000 St. Lawrence St., after a long illness. He was born on November 10, 1840, and was 74 years of age. His funeral was held on November 27th, at 10 o'clock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Smith, 1000 St. Lawrence St. The burial was in the cemetery at 11 o'clock. We pray God to comfort the children, who are left behind.

BROTHER G. D. FLEMING

(Late of Niagara Falls, Ont.)
On November 25th, 1914, Brother FLEMING passed away at his home, 1000 St. Lawrence St., after a long illness. He was born on November 10, 1840, and was 74 years of age. His funeral was held on November 27th, at 10 o'clock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Smith, 1000 St. Lawrence St. The burial was in the cemetery at 11 o'clock. We pray God to comfort the children, who are left behind.

MISSING

Parents, Relations, Friends, and Acquaintances of the following missing persons, please send information to the Editor of THE WAR CRY, 18 Albert Street, Toronto, Ont. The information should be sent as soon as possible, and should include the name, age, date of disappearance, and any other facts that may be of assistance in locating them. The Editor will be glad to send a reward of $100.00 to anyone who provides information that leads to the safe return of any of the missing persons listed below.

Some few have been heard of, but the cause of the crisis may be found among us. We did but treat our in the same way. More use might be made of our fellow-

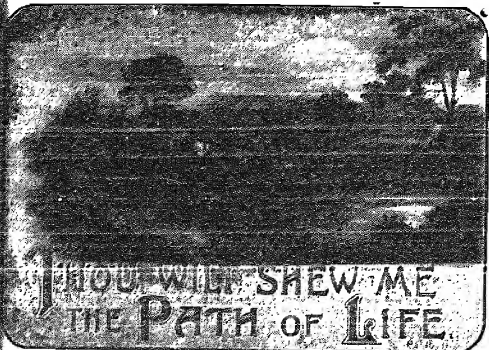

One Week to Christmas.

Few Specimens of Our
Texts & Mottoes

OUR Scripture Text sales are exceeding our most sanguine expectations, and from present indications this will be a record year. We are anxious to make it so, and to encourage our many Agents, and those who would like to become such, we will, until the end of December, prepay all $10.00 cash orders for these goods:

Many beautifully coloured designs besides those shown, at prices ranging from 5c. to 50c. Live and energetic Agents wanted. Write for particulars.

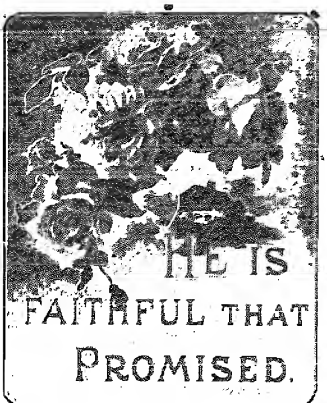

THE LORD SHALL SHEW ME THE PATH OF LIFE.
No. 438.—RURAL HOMESTEAD.—Size 12 1/2 by 9. Silver bevelled edges. Four fine English Landscape designs by Justus H. B., reproduced in full colours. Scripture texts blocked in silver. Texts: "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." "Thou wilt shew me the path of life." "He is a shield unto them that put their trust in Him." "Make Thy face to shine upon Thy servant." Price, each.....25c.

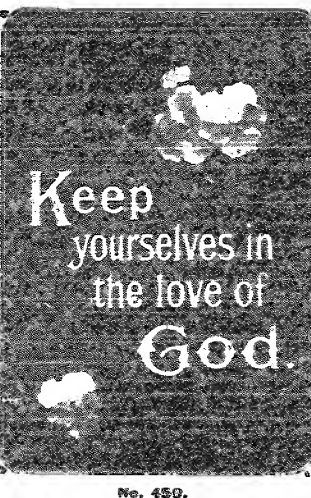

THE LORD SHALL GUIDE THEE CONTINUALLY.
No. 439.—THY COUNSEL.—Size 12 1/2 by 9. Silver bevelled edges. Four fine Lake and River Scenes, with beautiful Floral Sprays. Texts blocked in silver. Texts: "The Lord shall guide thee continually." "Thou shalt guide me with Thy Counsel." "I will guide Thee with Mine eye." "The Lord shall guide you into all truth." Price, each.....25c.

MY WORDS SHALL NOT PASS AWAY.
No. 454.—OLEMAYIS SERIES.—Corded.—Size 9 1/2 by 6 1/2. A new series of Texts with pretty Floral Designs, delicately tinted. Texts in white letters. Texts: "Even Christ pleased not Himself." "My Words shall not pass away." "Your life is hid with Christ in God." "As for God, His way is perfect." Price, each.....15c.

HE IS FAITHFUL THAT PROMISED.
No. 440.—

KEEP YOURSELVES IN THE LOVE OF GOD.
No. 450.—PERFECT PEACE.—Size 11 1/2 by 7 1/2. Corded. An entirely new series of Text Cards on Art Boards with exquisite hand-painted designs. Selected Texts in bold white letters. Texts: "Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom." "Be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus." "Keep yourselves in the love of God." "Let the peace of God rule in your hearts." Price, each.....25c.

DO ALL IN THE NAME OF THE LORD JESUS.
No. 442.—

THE BURDEN BEARER.—Corded.—Size 9 1/2 by 7 1/2. A pretty series of Floral and Landscape designs. Texts in silver. Texts: "He is faithful that promised." "Be thou faithful unto death." "Serve him with a perfect heart." "Cast thy burden upon the Lord." Price, each.....20c.

The Trade Secretary, 18 Albert Street, Toronto, Ont.

Salvation Songs

Holiness.

Tunes.—Thou Shepherd of Israel, 111; Realms of the Blest, 110.

1 Thou Shepherd of Israel and mine,
The joy and desire of my heart;
For closer communion I place,
I long to reside where Thou art.

Chorus.

Oh, speak white before Thee I pray,
And, O Lord, just what seemeth Thee good,
Reveal, and my heart shall obey.

Ah! show me that happiest place,
The place of Thy people's abode;
Where saints in true happiness gaze
And hang on a crucified God.

Thy love for a sinner declare,
Thy passion and death on the tree;
My spirit to Calvary bear,
To suffer and triumph with Thee.

Tune.—My mind upon Thee, 254;
Song Book, No. 412.

2 My mind upon Thee, Lord, is stayed,
My all upon Thy altar laid,
Oh, hear my prayer!
And since, in singleness of aim,
I parted with all, Thy power to gain
O God, draw near.

Chorus.

Saviour, dear Saviour, draw nearer, Humble in spirit I kneel at Thy cross;
Speak out Thy wishes still clearer,
And I will obey at all cost.

By every promise Thou hast made,
And by the price Thy love hath paid;
For my release,
I claim the power to make me whole,
And keep through every hour my soul
In perfect peace.

War and Testimony.

Tunes.—Nativity, 51; Grimsby, 32;
Song Book, No. 215.

3 I've found the Pearl of Greatest Price,
My heart doth sing for joy;
And since I must, for Christ I have,
Oh, what a Christ have I!

My Christ, He is the Lord of lords,
He is the King of kings;
He is the Son of Righteousness,
With dwelling in His wings.

My Christ, He is the Heaven of heavens,
My Christ, what shall I call?
My Christ, in that, my Christ is laid,
My Christ is all-in-all.

Tune.—Storm the forts of darkness,
273; Song Book No. 535.

4 Soldiers of our God arise!
The day is drawing near;
Shake the slumber from your eyes,
The light is growing clear.
Sit no longer idly by,
While the heedless millions die;
Lift the blood-stained banner high,
And take the field for Jesus.

Chorus.

Storm the forts of darkness,
Warriors of the Healing Lamb,
Army of Salvation,
Spread the fame of Glend's balm,
Conquer every nation,
Raise the glorious standard higher,
Strike for victory—never tire,
Forward march with blood and fire!
And win the world for Jesus.

Salvation.

Tunes.—Sovereignty, B. B., 119; Madrid, B.B. 117; Stella B. B., 120.

5 Would Jesus have the sinner die?
Why leave him then on you to die?

THE COMMISSIONER'S COLONEL

APPOINTMENTS.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 15.

RHODES AVENUE.—8 p.m. Opening Ceremony of New Hall.
The Commissioner will be assisted by COLONEL HAPP and the
T. H. Q. Staff. The Riverdale Band will furnish the Music.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18.

OSHAWA.—8 p.m. The Commissioner will Lecture on "The Duty of Christians to the Unsaved Masses." R. McLaughlin, Esq., will occupy the Chair. A Number of Staff Officers will Accompany the Commissioner.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 19.

PORT HOPE.—11 a.m. Holiness Meeting. 3 p.m. Lecture,
"The Duty of Christians to the Unsaved Masses," in the Opera House. A Leading Local Gentleman will occupy the Chair.
COBBOURG.—7 30 p.m. The Commissioner will preach in the Opera House.

LIEUT. COLONEL PUGHRE and MAJOR FINLAY will accompany the Commissioner at the above three places.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 20.

THE TEMPLE.—The Commissioner will conduct the Juniors' and Young People's Christmas Treat and Demonstration. T. H. Q. Staff will accompany.

Preliminary Notice.

TRANSCONTINENTAL TOUR

COMMISSIONER and MRS. COOMBS

and COLONEL and MRS. MAPP

WILL CONDUCT GREAT MEETINGS AS FOLLOWS:

THE COMMISSIONER AND PARTY

WINNIPEG.—Saturday, Sunday and Monday, January 7th, 8th, 9th.

BRANDON.—Tuesday, January 10th.

REGINA.—Wednesday, January 11th.

MOOSE JAW.—Thursday, Jan. 12th.

MEDICINE HAT.—Friday, Jan. 13th.

CALGARY.—Saturday and Sunday,
January 14th, 15th.

VERNON.—Tuesday, January 17th.

NEW WESTMINSTER.—Friday, January 20th.

VANCOUVER.—Saturday and Sunday, January 21st, 22nd.

VICTORIA.—Monday, January 23rd.

NOTE.—Subject to alteration After Winnipeg.

What means that strange exclaiming
cry?
(Sinner, He prays for you and me)
"Forgive them, Father, Oh, forgive!"
They know not that by Me they live!"

Jesus descended from above
Our loss of Eden to retrieve;
Great God of universal love,
If all the world through Thee may
live;
In me a quickening Spirit be,
And witness Thou has died for me!

Tunes.—Evans, 31; Manchester, 37;
Song Book, No. 100.

6 Come, every soul by sin oppressed,
There's mercy with the Lord;
And He will surely give you rest
By trusting in His word.

CHIEF SECRETARY AND PARTY

PORT ARTHUR.—Wednesday January 4th.

FORT WILLIAM.—Thursday, Jan. 5.

KENORA.—Friday January 6th.

WINNIPEG.—Saturday and Sunday,
January 7th, 8th.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE.—Monday,
January 9th.

TISDALE.—Wednesday, January 11th.

EDMONTON.—Friday, January 12th.

CALGARY.—Saturday and Sunday,
January 14th, 15th.

LETHBRIDGE.—Monday, Jan. 16th.

FERNIE.—Tuesday, January 17th.

NELSON.—Wednesday, Jan. 18th.

ROSSLAND.—Thursday, Jan. 19th.

VANCOUVER.—Saturday and Sunday, January 21st, 22nd.

VICTORIA.—Monday, January 23rd.

Chorus.
Oh! Jesus my Saviour will welcome sinners home.
Sinner, don't delay.

For Jesus shed His precious blood
Rich knowledge to bestow;
Please now into the crimson flood,
That washes white as snow.

Come then, and join the holy band,
And on to glory go.

To dwell in that Celestial Land
Where joy is immortal song.

WILL now arrive and other persons in the Dominion, having in the British Isles, some friends who would be willing to come to Canada, as Democrats, and who desire to assist in the work of the League for the Redemption of Canada, Dec 1.

COLONEL

RHODES AVE.

(Hall.) Wednesday

KINGSTON.—Sunday

Dec. 18th and 19th

DOVERCOURT.—

(V. P. Christmas

LIEUT. COLONEL

will

DOVERCOURT.—

TORONTO 1, (4th

26th St.)—Sunday

BRIGADIER

will

PETERBOROUGH.—

Sunday, Dec.

CLINTON.—Thursday

CHESTER.—Wednesday

TORONTO 1.—Tuesday

BRIGADIER

will

COBBOURG.—Saturday

Dec. 18th and 19th

TORONTO 1.—Sunday

MAJOR DAVID

Oshawa.—Sunday,

MAJOR

Yorkville, December

THE TERRITORIAL

will

Lippincott.—Monday,

THE TERRITORIAL

will

Liegar Street.—Thursday

LIEUT. COL. SOUTH

PRINCE

T. H. Q. South

Brigade

will

REVIVAL MEETING

as follows:

Brigadier Bond is

ed by Adjutant

Church, Captain

Cader Gray, will

West Toronto—Sat.

16th and 17th.

Brigadier Morris is

ed by Major

Partedeen, Captain

Palmer and Captain

Riverdale—Sat. and

and 18th.

Major Phillips is

by Staff Captain

Bliss, Captain

Good, Captain

Nassauville—Sat.

Chapier—Sat. and

and 18th.

Major Atwood is

by Staff Captain

Moor's, Captain

bourne, and Captain

will:

Liegar Street—Sat. and

16th and 17th.

T. F. & APPENDIX

Captain Macdonald, Dec.

Montreal Dec 18,

1918

Captain Lloyd, West

Fredericton Dec.

19th Dec. 21, 22,

23, 24

Montreal, Dec.

19th, Dec 20, 21, 22,

23, 24, 25, 26, 27,

28, 29, 30, 31, 1918

Dec 21, 22, 23,

HE

CHRIST